Nasir Lone takes 6 wkts, Rashab slams ton as J&K restrict MP to 225

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: But for Rishab Chouhan's magnificent century, Lone Nasir Muzaffar plotted collapse of formidable Madhya Pradesh to restrict them to a modest total of 225 runs in 72.1 overs in their first innings in U-25 CK Nayudu Trophy at Madhya Pradesh Cricket Association Ground-1 Nimkheda, on Sunday. Earlier put into bat, Madhya Pradesh batsmen except Rishab Chouhan struggled against brilliant bowling display by Nasir and lost wickets at regular intervals to bundle out for 225 runs in the first innings. Rishab stood tall and slammed a splendid century to guide his team to somewhat respectable total. Rishab scored 102 runs off 152 balls, studded with 13 fours and 3 sixes. Opening batter Sunit Khuswah contributed sedate 37 runs off 136 balls studded with 4 boundaries. Ishan Afridi, Sagar Solanki and Ritwik Diwan contributed 23, 20 and 19 runs to the total respectively. For J&K, Lone Nasir Muzaffar was the wrecker-in-chief, who took 6 wickets by conceding 66 runs in 22.1 overs, while Mujtaba Youssf and Kaval Preet Singh bagged 2 wickets each. In reply, J&K were 31/0 in 7 overs at stumps on day-1 today. Arya Thakur (18) and Jyiaad Nazir Magrey (12) were at the crease.

Slathia slams successive Governments for being inimical to peoples' interests

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: BJP Pradesh Vice President and former minister Surjeet Singh Slathia today slammed the so-called mainstream parties for being inimical to the legitimate interests of the people of Jammu and Kashmir, especially the Refugees, Gujjars, SCs and Paharis. "They are jittered over the BJP's massive outreach to last person in the society in a bid to take them to the modern context so that they can take administration for their welfare and progress besides eliciting their participation in the implementation of various schemes tailored for their overall empowerment", Slathia said while interacting with the people during the meeting of the BJP's Refugee, Legal and Human Rights Cell for Arnia and Jammu here.

Slathia, who is the Prabhami of the Cell, exhorted the Conveners and Co-Conveners to generate awareness about various schemes launched by the Narendra Modi government at the Centre and the UT.

Further Full Mock Tests scheduled from 15th January will help the aspirants in getting their preparation assessed and evaluated," said Heemant Bhat, Office Coordinator. The College has also started personality test programme including mock interviews for students appearing in JKAS 2021 and IAS 2022 personality test being conducted by the Jammu Kashmir Public Service Commission and Union Public Service Commission respectively.

administration for their welfare and progress. A sizable population of the targeted segments has already benefited, he said and referred to the welfare measures taken for the empowerment of these marginalised communities in the past several years. Prabhami also referred to the concern of the Prime Minister with regard to emancipation and empowerment of these communities, saying that a leap forward has been taken for their empowerment and emancipation yet more is still to be done. Unlike the mindset of the successive governments in the UT about the weaker sections to be provided just basic amenities, the BJP is committed towards their active participation in governance and bringing them into mainstream as equals, he added.

Slathia, who is the Prabhami of the Cell, exhorted the Conveners and Co-Conveners to generate awareness about various schemes launched by the Narendra Modi government at the Centre and the UT.

Nagar Kirtan spread message of brotherhood, communal harmony: Randhawa

Gurdwara Sahib Dharap to mark the Parkash Purab of Guru Gobind Singh.

Nagar Kirtan is also one of the medium to spread the message of brotherhood and communal harmony. Former Legislator Vikram Randhawa

"Other religion people also welcome the Nagar Kirtan, as it spread the message of brotherhood and communal harmony which the priorities of life should be determined.

"Randhawa said, adding that the teaching of the Sikhs gurus have played a pivotal role in the lives of the people.

"Teaching of gurus are being followed by the people", he said, adding that Sikh community has always remained in forefront to tackle any odd situation. Randhawa said that the life of Dasam Patshah Ji is a beacon for humanity, from which the priorities of life should be determined.

He appealed to the people to raise their voice against social evils on the occasion of Guru Sahib's enlightenment and to pay homage and respect to Guru Sahib by following his life and teachings and he also appealed to Sikhs they should become Amritdhari by taking amrit. Urging the people to imbibe the spirit of service and humility as preached by the Great Guru, the Former Legislator said that Sri Guru Gobind Singh ji envisioned a casteless society free from rituals, thereby redeeming the suffering humanity from the pangs of agony. Extending warm greetings on the occasion, Former Legislator stressed upon to follow teachings of Guru Sahib.

Sunil, Gurdeep shine as Media XI defeats CCC by 6 wickets

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Media XI Cricket Club (Media XI) Jammu remained better off Combined Cricket Club (CCC) to register a 6 wicket win in a friendly T20 cricket match being played at Sidhra Cricket Ground, here on Sunday. Anticipating bowling friendly conditions, Media XI skipper Yash Khajuria opted to bat first and the decision was proven just as the Media XI bowlers took advantage of the swinging conditions and took 3 early wickets within the power play by conceding 22 runs.

CCC batters Bhanu Partap

(14) and Niku (19) played with some grit and patience to avoid a batting collapse. Ashish (13) Bhanu (13) and Kunal (16) also chipped in and took CCC to a challenging 141/8 in the stipulated 20 overs. For Media XI, Sunil Sambyal and Yash

Khajuria took 3 wickets each while Arun and Ashu took 2 and 1 wicket respectively. In reply, Media XI opener Gurdeep (71*) played match winning knock and took the CCC bowlers to the cleaners by hitting 10 spectacular boundaries and one six. Sunil Sambyal (22) was the second top scorer who played some high percentage shots to keep check on the asking rate. With 13 needed off 12 balls Media XI chased down the target in the penultimate over to hand a 6 wickets drubbing over CCC. For CCC, Bhanu Partap took 3 wickets to remain the pick of the bowlers while Ashish and Dawa shared one wicket apiece.

Later, Gurdeep (71*) and Sunil Sambyal (22 runs & 3 Wickets) were jointly declared as 'Player of Match' for their outstanding performances with bat and ball.
