Baramulla among top performers under ADP: NITI Aayog Report

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

BARAMULLA: Under the Aspirational Districts Programme, District Baramulla has ranked among top performers under key thematic area of 'Basic Infrastructure' as per the report issued by National Institution for Transforming India (NITI Aayog), for September 2023.

Baramulla District as such has secured an additional funding of Rs. 3 crore from NITI Aayog for the developmental purposes under any of the already set 5 thematic areas viz. Education, Health and Nutrition, Financial Inclusion and Skill Development, Basic Infrastructure, and Agricultural and Water Resources.

In acknowledgment of this remarkable achievement, the Additional Secretary NITI Aayog, Venneaganti Radha, IAS, has extended her congratulations and appreciation to the District Team responsible for execution of the programme and Central Prabhari Officers for outstanding performance.

District Administration Baramulla, conveyed heartfelt gratitude to the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor, Manoj Sinha, and Chief Secretary Atul Dullo for the unwavering support extended by the Jammu and Kashmir Union Territory administration in accomplishing this significant feat.

While congratulating the district team for their accomplishment, the DC underscored that this achievement was a product of the combined efforts of its officers and expressed his confidence that, collectively, the District can chart a course toward elevated development.

Officer Uttam Singh, Assistant Commissioner Development Preeti Sharma and Executive Engineers of different divisions besides others.

Later, Sachin Kumar convened another meeting attended by ADC Anusya Jamwal, ADC Shishir Gupta, ACR Piyush Dhotra, Sub-Divisional Magistrates, Tehsildars and officers from Rural Development Department including ACD and BDOs. The DC reviewed the performance of Revenue, RDD and other Departments and quizzed the officers on their day to day activities.

The Revenue Department officers were asked to expedite the digitisation process, maintain transparency in operations and connect with the public. The DC also reviewed the progress of other digital interventions undertaken by the department.

Similarly, the Rural Development and its officers gave details about the progress on different schemes and works in their respective jurisdictions, such as MGNREGA, PMAY (G), SBM, IWMP and others.

He exhorted all the officers to make their presence felt in the public through implementation of projects, rule of law and bringing positive change in the lives of the masses.
