DHEW Udhampur organises special Gram Sabha

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
UDHAMPUR: The District Hub for Empowerment of Women (DHEW), in collaboration with One Stop Centre (OSC) Udhampur; organised a pledge ceremony and a special gram sabha at the conference hall of DPO Poshan Udhampur.

The pledge ceremony aimed to emphasise the education of the girl child and to ensure that girls are born, loved and nurtured to become equal and empowered citizens of the country.

Further, the Beti Bachao Beti Padhao programme was organised in different panchayats of District Udhampur, namely Kashirah, Upper Kawa, Smdrani and Mutal, where Mamta Kits were distributed to the newborn babies and the locals were made aware of the various women-centric schemes implemented by the government.

All these programmes were organised with a focus on Corporate Social Responsibility and child protection and highlighted the importance of skill development among girls. The participants were requested to spread the message of BBBP. The special sabha drew attention to saving, protecting, nurturing, and educating the girl child by ensuring the enforcement of the Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques (PC & PNDT) Act in the district.

In addition to these activities, the DHEW staff, along with the OSC staff, also pasted stickers with the logo and message of BBBP on the walls of different government offices of District Udhampur on January 22, 2024.

This whole programme was organised under the guidance of the Deputy Commissioner (Chairman of BBBP scheme) Udhampur.

Pran Pritishta celebration: Chairman DDC Doda pays obeisance at Bhaderwah Temples

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

DODA: Chairman District Development Council Doda Dhananter Singh today paid obeisance at various temples in Bhaderwah to join devotees on the auspicious occasion of Pran Pritishta celebration at Ayodhya Ram Temple. During the visit, the DDC Chairman made a special stop at the renowned Lakshmi Narayan Temple, Gupt Ganga, ancient Vasuki Naag temple and Hanuman Mandir at famous hill station Nalthi. His presence at these sacred sites underscored the importance of the day, marking the celebration of Pranpritishta. Expressing his reverence for the occasion, he extended heartfelt greetings and congratulations to the people on this historic day. The Chairman's visit to these temples not only showcased his spiritual participation but also highlighted the significance of the Pran Pritishta celebration. The auspicious event holds profound historical importance, especially in the context of the ongoing festivities at the Ayodhya Ram Temple. Chairman Dhananter Singh's presence added a special touch to the celebration, symbolizing unity and shared cultural heritage.

livelihoods. He also disclosed that various such programmes with other agencies are also in pipeline for the benefit of the farming community of District Samba.

Dr. Vaneet Jishtu, Scientist-E, Himalayan Forest Research Institute, Shimla made people aware of the role of traditional knowledge in conservation of natural resources, and said that the natural resources can be conserved only by preserving the rich traditional knowledge. He also threw light on the role of sacred groves as natural reservoirs of native plants and the important role they play in biodiversity conservation. He cited various examples of traditional practices across the globe and region.

Dr. Joginder Chauhan, Chief Technical Officer, ICFRE-Himalayan Forest Research Institute, Shimla gave information on conservation, use and value addition of medicinal plants. Dr. AmitMahajan, Krishi Vigyan Kendra - Samba talked on weed management in forest crops. This training program was attended by 40 participants from Samba, Jammu region, which included progressive farmers, Panchayat representatives, Mahila Mandal and Youth Club members, and frontline personnel of the Forest Department.
