FFMA celebrates Birth Anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Freedom Fighters Memorial Association (FFMA) held a function to celebrate the Birth Anniversary of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, at Maheshpura Chowk, Jammu.

FFMA members paying tributes to Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose at Maheshpura Chowk, Jammu.

The function was organised by FFMA chairman Rajiv Mahajan under the supervision of Patron Ved Gandotra. Floral tributes were paid to the great Martyr by garlanding his statue. The speakers threw light on the life history of Netaji.

Speaking on the occasion, Rajiv Mahajan said that Subhas Chandra Bose was born a patriot who struggled throughout his life for the freedom of the motherland.

He added that in young age Bose left home and visited every corner of the world to garner support to his freedom struggle.

He further said that Neta Ji framed a full-fledged army of the Indian youth under the name of Indian National Army to fight the British forces.

Ved Gandotra recalled the contribution of Subas Chandra Bose towards nation and described him as a great revolutionary.

He said that Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose's patriotism continues to have an impact in the country.

His slogan 'Jai Hind' is relevant to us even today. He said the life and sacrifice of this great national hero would ever act as a beacon for inspiring the youth to do selfless service for the country. He also exhorted the youth to come forward for selfless service of the nation, so as to cherish the aspirations of our great freedom fighters.

Among others who participated were Karnail Chand (Working President), Pritam Sharma (Sr. Vice President), Sadar J.J Singh (General Secretary), Parbhat Kapahi and others.

Secretary reviews functioning of PD&MD

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Secretary Planning Development and Monitoring Department (PD&MD), Atjaz Asad, on Tuesday convened a meeting to review functioning of district level offices of the department.

Emphasizing the pivotal role of CSSs in holistic growth and development of Jammu and Kashmir, Secretary underscored the need of achieving 100 per cent saturation of these vital schemes at the grassroots level. He instructed the Chief Planning Officers to ensure timely completion of all the schemes being directly implemented by the district authorities.

The Secretary impressed upon all District Statistics and Evaluation Officers to accomplish all work assignments promptly including 100 per cent completion of Physical Verifications, Evaluation Studies, Surveys, etc., within stipulated timelines.

He exhorted upon the need of optimally utilizing the technological interventions in the day to day working of district offices. In this regard, he asked for launching sensitization and capacity building programmes for the officers.

ISHTH campaign launched under National AIDS Control Programme

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: To provide comprehensive in-house health care services to the Jail inmates and populations residing in other closed settings across Jammu and Kashmir, a special campaign namely ISHTH (Integrated STI, HIV, TB and Hepatitis) was launched on Tuesday in the premises of the Central Jail Kot Bhalwal, Jammu with collaborative efforts of J&K AIDS Control Society (JKACS), NIIM, RNTCP, WCD and the Prisons department J&K.

The launch function was inaugurated by Vikas Gupta, DIG Prisons & Corrective Services, J&K in presence of Dr. Manu Bhatnagar, Additional Director, JKACS; Dr. Monika Wali, I/c Medical Officer (IEC), JKACS and other officials from the related departments.

In his address, the DIG Prisons emphasized that the success of the ISHTH campaign depends solely upon the support provided by all the stakeholders involved, especially the health functionaries dealing in such diseases. Later Dr. Manu Bhatnagar, Additional Director, JKACS, in her key address, explained in detail the importance of the campaign and the need for interventions in prisons and other closed settings and about the integrated services being provided by the government for the welfare of the masses including the Jail inmates.

She informed that under this drive all the services covered under the ISHTH campaign will be provided at one point so that timely treatment and prevention therapy can be made available to the needy which shall help in containing the further transmission of these diseases in the community. The address was followed by a short nukkad performance by the artists of Samooch theatre highlighting the modes of transmission of HIV and its prevention. The programme ended with the presentation of mementoes to the dignitaries.

Labour Com visits several establishments, construction sites

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Labour Commissioner, Charandeep Singh on Tuesday visited several establishments and construction sites in Jammu district including Tawi Riverfront Project and Amar Flour Mills at Gangyal.

During the visit, the Labour Commissioner interacted with the workers and the management to get a firsthand appraisal of the implementation of Labour welfare Laws and social security schemes. He enquired about difficulties, if any, being faced by the workers in availing benefits of the Government welfare schemes meant for them. He also touched upon the subject of wages, hours of work, overtime, leave including sick leave, welfare, health and the basic amenities provided to the workers at the work sites.

The Labour Commissioner emphasized on ensuring compliance to the Labour Laws in letter and spirit and urged the management to ensure appropriate measures for safety and health of the workers.

"Government is committed to enhance the welfare and well-being of workers in both the organised and unorganised sectors and also harmonize the needs of workers and industry" he reiterated and added that a check list of labour welfare provisions under different Labour Laws will be provided to the establishments for convenience.

The workers thanked the Labour Commissioner for interacting and listening to them. Earlier, the Labour Commissioner handed over a cheque of Rs 15.74 Lakh, under Employees Compensation Act-1923, to the legal heirs of a deceased worker hailing from Deoli, Bambyla District Rajouri who met with a fatal accident during the course of his employment on the Delhi-Katra Expressway.
