Govt determined to stamp out terrorism in J&K: LG

Police busts terror module operating from PoK, arrests 5 terrorist associates

LG Manoj Sinha addressing during the Republic Day function in Jammu on Friday.

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Jammu and Kashmir Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha on Friday expressed the government's commitment to stamp out terrorism and its ecosystem and said efforts are underway for a final assault to eradicate the unholy proxy war sponsored by a neighbouring country in the Union Territory. Sinha underlined the significance of the successful G20 conclave and said it has given a befitting reply to the enemies of humanity and sponsors of terrorism in Jammu and Kashmir by showcasing to the world the region's economic strength, business potential, cultural richness and tourism opportunities. "The efforts are going on for the final assault on terrorism, its ecosystem and unholy proxy war being sponsored by a neighbouring country. We have tried to create a new Jammu and Kashmir which has the power, strength of spirituality, modern and scientific facilities and response," the LG said while addressing the Republic Day function. Sinha paid homage to police, army and paramilitary personnel who laid down their lives for the security of the nation. "While remembering their sacrifices, we reiterate our commitment to stamp out terrorism and its ecosystem from the soil of Jammu and Kashmir. I congratulate the police forces who have bagged 113 gallantry medals - highest among other forces. The police's fight against terrorism is exemplary,"
