The discussions covered critical aspects such as seating arrangements, barricading, security measures, traffic regulation, drinking water and power supply, sanitation, first aid, PAS, and deployment of fire-tenders.

It was decided in the meeting that the main function would take place at the premises of Government Degree College for Boys, Udhampur. The event will commence with the Shehnai Vadan program in the morning, organized by the Information department. Contingents from Police, CRPF, Volunteer Home Guards, NCC, and various colleges and schools will partake in the march past. DC instructed the Executive Engineers of PHE, PDD, and R&B to ensure seating, barricading, and drinking water arrangements, along with uninterrupted power supply at the function site.

The Chief Executive Officer of Municipality was tasked with maintaining cleanliness in the town and at the venue. For first aid, the Chief Medical Officer was directed to deploy an ambulance along with a team of doctors and necessary medicine until the end of the function. District and Traffic Police will ensure security and traffic management in the town. Several committees, including the Rehearsal, Reception Committee, Illumination Committee, and Contingent Selection Committee, were formed to ensure the successful celebration of the national function.

DC urged the officers to make all necessary arrangements well in time for the smooth celebration of the National event. Emphasizing zeal and enthusiasm, she called for close coordination among departments to make the Republic Day celebration a grand success. All departments were directed to have their officers and employees present at the venue on the day of the function. The CEO and DYSSO were instructed to ensure the participation of students from far-flung areas in the National event.

Voter awareness on EVMs: DEO Reasi solicits cooperation of political representatives

District Election Officer Reasi, Vishesh Mahajan chairing a meeting.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

REASI: District Election Officer Reasi, Vishesh Mahajan held a crucial meeting with representatives of the political parties in the DC office, today. The agenda was to inform representatives about the ongoing initiatives aimed at bolstering voter awareness about Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs).

During the session, it was revealed that EVM Demonstration Centres have been strategically set up at key locations, including the DC office and the offices of SDMs in Katra, Dharmari, and Mahore to promote awareness. These centers have been established to provide voters with a thorough understanding of EVMs, fostering well-informed and efficient participation in the upcoming elections.

Moreover, emphasis was placed on the initiation of the First Level Checking of Additional EVMs at the DC office, Reasi, scheduled to be conducted from 6th to 9th January, 2024. Notably, the participation of political representatives in this process underscores the commitment to transparency and fairness in the electoral process.

It was informed that all claims and objections received during the recently concluded Special Summary Revision have been diligently addressed. The final Electoral Rolls, incorporating these resolutions, are slated for publication on January 5, 2024. This meticulous approach reflects a dedication to ensuring a smooth and credible electoral process throughout the district.
