

DC conducts comprehensive inspection at GMC Rajouri

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAJOURI: Deputy Commissioner, Vikas Kundal on Thursday conducted a comprehensive inspection of Government Medical College Rajouri, where he assessed the health care facilities and infrastructure. During the visit, he inspected the staff quarters and the Girls hostel block and addressed the major issues.

One of the primary concerns was the need for the completion of the road leading to the girls hostel block. Recognizing the importance of safe and accessible transportation for the students, the Deputy Commissioner Vikas Kundal instructed the Executive Engineer of the PWD to initiate the necessary measures for its early completion.

The Deputy Commissioner observed the need for proper drainage facilities in the girls hostel block. To address this issue, the Executive Engineer of the PWD informed the Deputy Commissioner that the Detailed Project Report (DPR) outlining the proposed drainage system had already been submitted to the concerned authorities.

Another matter discussed during the visit was the construction of a boundary wall around the premises of the GMC Rajouri. Recognizing the significance of the boundary wall, the Deputy Commissioner Vikas Kundal directed the concerned authorities to undertake the construction of the boundary wall promptly. This measure aims to enhance the safety and well-being of the students, staff, and other individuals within the GMC premises. The DC highlighted the need to address the issue of shifting staff in the staff quarters. He directed the officers to ensure the provision of all necessary civic amenities to facilitate the smooth functioning of the quarters. This includes the provision of water supply and other essential services. The Deputy Commissioner emphasized the importance of creating a conducive living environment for the staff, ensuring their well-being and productivity.

Deputy Commissioner instructed the Executive Engineer of the Jal Shakti Department to identify suitable land for the water supply scheme for GMC Rajouri. This measure aims to alleviate water scarcity issues and ensure a sustainable water supply for the GMC Rajouri and its associated facilities.

The Deputy Commissioner expressed his commitment in addressing these concerns, stressing the importance of providing a conducive and safe environment for the students and staff of GMC Rajouri. He directed all concerned officers to work together efficiently to resolve the identified issues promptly.

Among the others who accompanied the Deputy Commissioner during his visit were Principal GMC Rajouri, Amar Jeet Singh; CPO, Mohammad Khurshid; SE Hydraulics, Bhram Jyoti Sharma; SE PWD(R&B), Devi Dayal; MS DH, Dr Mehmood Bajar; XEN PDD Rajouri, Mohd Rashid; XEN PWD(R&B) Rajouri, Sardar Khan; XEN Jal Shakti Rajouri Ashwini Sharma and other concerned officers.

the target groups for various welfare schemes of the Modi government. He, especially, focused on the 'Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra' and the 'PM Vishwakarma Yojana' and termed these as the flagship schemes initiated by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi led Union Government to reach the poorest of the poor in order to uplift and maintain their dignified living. He asked them to become a brand in the public service that the public should univocally share stories about the good qualities and the public welfare works of the BJP cadre.

Ashok Koul also shared the details of the forthcoming party programmes with the party leaders and asked them to work on a mission mode in the wake of upcoming Parliamentary elections. He asked them to leave no stone unturned to ensure a big win for the Narendra Modi government in the elections in order to continue the good works for the masses.

Arvind Gupta asked the party leaders to increase their Pravas in the remote areas of the District in order to reach up to every single person in the region. He said that the party cadre should also share the detailed information of the public welfare schemes with the public during their pravas.

Rohit Dubey thanked the senior leaders for their guidance and assured them that the party cadre is actively involved in the ground realization of all the public welfare schemes.
