

Bikes fitted with modified silencer seized

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Police Post Poonichak headed by ICPD Poonichak PSI Vijay Kumar has seized/Challenged four Royal Enfield Bullet motorcycles equipped with modified silencers and pressure horns that were causing noise pollution and public nuisance in the area and also seized seven two wheelers that were found plying on roads without documents and numbers plates.

This action follows numerous complaints from residents disturbed by the loud noises produced by these modifications. Authorities have announced plans to extend enforcement efforts to other areas of Rural Zone of Jammu and to target individuals and businesses involved in selling and installing these unauthorized silencers and those who are using unregistered vehicles, in accordance with the Motor Vehicles Act.

It's important to note that unauthorized modifications to vehicle silencers and plying vehicle without number plates and documents are illegal under the Motor Vehicles Act. Such alterations not only contribute to noise pollution but can also reduce the efficiency of the bike and pose safety risks. Besides these unregistered vehicle are widely getting used for numerous criminal activities including snatching and drug peddling. Authorities are urging vehicle owners to refrain from making such modifications and are warning of strict penalties for those who continue to violate these regulations.
