Workshops on e-Sakshya held at Poonch, Reasi, Rajouri

Poonch police officers charing a meeting; Reasi police officials at a programme; and DIG RP Range and SSP Rajouri chairing a ameeting.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
 POONCH: In a significant step towards modernizing investigative procedures, a one-day sensitization workshop on the eSakshya App was conducted at District Police Lines (DPL) Poonch. The workshop aimed at equipping police officials with the necessary knowledge and skills for using digital tools in crime scene evidence management and understanding new legal procedures. During the familiarization session, 67 investigating officers were trained on the effective use of the eSakshya App, a digital platform designed for recording and managing evidence at crime scenes in a structured and transparent manner. The session was attended by SSP, ASP Poonch, other supervisory officers, SHOs, police post in-charges, and subordinate police personnel. REASI: On the directions of SSP Reasi Paramvir Singh, District Police Reasi organized a one-day crash course on the E-Sakshya and E-Summon at the District Police Lines (DPL) Reasi. The course witnessed the participation of SHOs, I/C Police Posts, and investigating officers of the district Police. This initiative aims to enhance the digital skills of police officers and modernize policing for efficient law enforcement. The course focused on the features and functionality of the E-Sakshya and E-Summon platforms, ensuring officers are well-equipped to use these tools in their day-to-day investigation skills. Speaking on the occasion, SSP Reasi emphasized the importance of integrating technology into policing to improve efficiency, transparency, and public service delivery. He also encouraged participants to adopt these applications as a step forward in achieving a tech-driven approach to law enforcement. RAJOURI: Training program for Investigating Officers (IOs) of District

Rajouri was organized at the conference hall of District Police Lines (DPL) Rajouri. The program focused on the implementation and usage of the E-SAKSHAY Mobile Application during investigation. The event was presided over by DIG RP Range and SSP Rajouri who also addressed the participants on the importance of adopting technological advancements in modern policing. They emphasized the role of e-Sakshay in ensuring transparency, accountabil-ty, and expedited investigations. A total of 40 Investigating Officers from the district attended the Training Program. A Master Trainer provided hands-on training, equipping the officers with practical knowledge to operate the application effectively. The initiative is part of a broader commitment to improving police services and fostering digital integration in law enforcement activities.

Tsewang Chuskit's triple strike powers Changla Lamos to women's final

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
 LEH: Changla Lamos stormed into the women's final of the Royal Enfield Ice Hockey League Season 2, defeating Sham Eagles 6-3, powered by a brilliant hat-trick from national team star Tsewang Chuskit. They will face reigning champions Maryul Spamo in tomorrow's much-anticipated title clash. In the men's category, defending champions Kang Sings edged out Purig Warriors 2-0, while Changthang Shans secured a dominant 3-0 win over Humas Warriors, setting the stage for an exciting final showdown on Monday, 13th January. The Royal Enfield Ice Hockey League Season 2 is being organized in partnership with the UT

Administration of Ladakh and Ice Hockey Association of Ladakh at the Nawang Dorjay Stobdan (NDS) Stadium, Leh. In a gripping first men's semi-final of the Royal Enfield Ice Hockey League Season 2, defending champions Kang Sings delivered a solid performance to defeat Kargil-based Purig Warriors 2-0. The match started with both teams battling hard, but strong defensive play ensured a goalless first period. The deadlock was finally broken in the 26th minute when Tsering Angchok of Kang Sings netted a superb wrist shot, assisted by Stanzin Angchok. Nine minutes later, Stanzin Lotos doubled the lead with another precise wrist shot, giving Kang Sings a 2-0 advantage by the end of the second period. Despite the Warriors' determined efforts in the final period, they couldn't capitalize on their chances. Kang Sings' defense held firm, and they sealed a well-deserved 2-0 victory to advance to the finals for the second consecutive season. Changthang Shans put on a stellar performance in the second semi-final, defeating Humas Warriors 3-0 to qualify for the finals of the Royal Enfield Ice Hockey League Season 2 for the second year in a row. The Shans took an early lead when Konchok Namgyal scored in the 3rd minute, assisted by Tsewang Dorjay. Their momentum continued as captain Chamba Tsetan added another goal just two minutes later with a precise wrist shot, making it 2-0. However, the Warriors created several opportunities, Shans' goalkeeper Tsetan Namgyal was unbeatable, keeping the Warriors off the scoreboard. The second period was closely contested, with both teams battling hard, but neither could find the back of the net. In the final period, with time running out, Chamba Tsetan struck again in the dying minutes to complete his brace and seal a 3-0 victory. With this win, Changthang Shans now advance to the finals, eager to claim their maiden title in a repeat of last year's final clash against Kang Sings. The last semi-final of Day

8 in the Royal Enfield Ice Hockey League Season 2 witnessed an action-packed battle between Changla Lamos and Sham Eagles. The Eagles took an early lead when Lobzang Palmo scored just 35 seconds into the game. Changla Lamos quickly leveled the score, courtesy of captain Tsewang Chuskit's goal in the very next minute. Rigzen Angmo restored the lead for the Eagles in the 6th minute but the Lamos responded again with a goal by Disket Angmo in the 7th minute, ending the first period at 2-2. Building on their momentum, the Lamos dominated the second period with a brilliant offensive display. Captain Tsewang Chuskit completed her double in the 30th minute, giving her team a 3-2 lead. Soon after, Padma Chuskit and Tsewang Chuskit added two more goals in the 32nd and 34th minutes, respectively, taking the score to 5-2. Tsewang then completed her hat-trick, cementing a commanding lead by the end of the second period. Despite a determined effort by Sham Eagles, who managed a goal through Tashi Dolker early in the final period, they were unable to overcome the Lamos' solid defense. Padma Chuskit scored her second goal in the dying moments to seal a 6-3 victory for Changla Lamos and secure a place in the eagerly awaited women's category finals.
