NDPS Court rejects pre-arrest bail of lady in heroin smuggling case

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Special Judge NDPS Court Sunil Sangra rejected the pre-arrest bail application of one Zarina Akhtar, wife of Abdul Rehman, resident of Degwar Tarwan Tehsil Haveli who was allegedly involved in heroin smuggling case. According to the police report that During investigation main accused Gulzar Hussain son of son of Hassan Din resident of Baghyal Dara District Poonch made disclosure statement that he received contraband "Heroin" 1kg and 231 gms from petitioner-accused

Zareena Bi and told him to deliver the consignment to one Sikh person at Jammu. Petitioner is residing near to international Border and she remained constant touch with Gulzar Hussain through mobiles and whatsapp chats. Special Judge NDPS Sunil Sangra after hearing APP Riyaz Ahmed along with IO DySP East Sheezan Bhat for the prosecution, observed that the accused-Zareena Akhtar (Bi) person does not deserves for the concession of anticipatory bail as per the allegations reported against accused as stated in the FIR No 200 of 2024 offence under Section 8, 21 and 22 NDPS Act registered at police station Bahu Fort Jammu. Court further observed that to grant anticipatory bail in a case of this nature is not really warranted. In view of the above, in the present circumstances, this Court is of the opinion that custodial interrogation of the petitioner ought not to be denied to the investigating authority. Therefore, I find no good and sufficient grounds for enlargement of the petitioner on anticipatory bail and order dated November 9, 2024 of this court whereby petitioner admitted on interim anticipatory bail is hereby recalled. The custody of the petitioner Zareena Akhtar (Bi) is handed over to Sheezan Bhat DySP Sub Division Officer City East Jammu in presence of Lady Head Constable Makhni Devi, No.565/J of Police Station Bahu Fort, Jammu in open court for judicial investigation.
