SHRADHANJALI

Sh. Dileep Kumar Bhat son of late Smt JanakRani and late Pandit Jagar Nath Bhat passed away in the prime of his age on 21st January, 2025. Unfortunately his wife Nancy, passed away six years ago quite suddenly. They are survived by a daughter Nishu who is a computer engineer. She was recently married to Vivek Pandita who is pursuing MS degree from BITS Pilani.

Dileep Kumar Bhat was born in 1967 at Ladhu, a picturesque village in Tehsil Pampore known for its sacred springs, saffron, ancient temple ruins and blue limestone quarries. His father was one of the most pre-eminent social activists and first A class contractor of the area. They owned vast apple and almond orchards. Dileep ji is survived by three brothers and a sister who are well settled. Dileep Kumar served in Archeology Department. He had a deep penchant for cars and would drive any type of vehicle for hundreds of miles being considered an expert at the wheels. He did his BA from Kashmir and pursued many trades with distinction. His heart bled for the poor without consideration to religion. He was popular among Hindus and Muslims of his village and beyond for his humane and patient nature. He always wore a smile on his face. His sad and untimely demise has left a deep scar on the psyche of his family.

Sh. Dileep Kumar Bhat
