Law students join Team Jammu's efforts to tackle drug mafia, promote Dogri culture

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Students from various law colleges gathered today at the head office of Team Jammu in Shakti Nagar, Jammu, to pledge their full commitment in the relentless battle against the drug mafia that continues to ravage the youth of Jammu and Kashmir. The event marked a decisive step in Team Jammu's efforts to tackle the growing drug menace while simultaneously working to preserve the region's rich Dogri language, culture, and heritage. The students took an oath to be active participants in spreading awareness about the destructive impact of drugs, helping to educate their peers, and advocating for strong, community-driven action against the drug mafia.

Chairman Team Jammu, Zorawar Singh Jamwal with students from various law colleges.

They also committed to working alongside Team Jammu to ensure that those involved in the drug trade are brought to justice. Zorawar Singh Jamwal, Chairman Team Jammu encouraged the students and welcomed their active involvement in this crucial fight. "Today marks a powerful step in our war against the drug mafia. These law students will not only spread awareness but will also be at the forefront, using their legal expertise to break the drug mafia's hold on our community. With their dedication, I believe we can make a significant dent in this fight and restore a sense of safety and hope for the youth of Jammu and Kashmir," he stated. The students will also gain practical experience in the coming months, working within the legal system to actively dismantle the drug network. This initiative is expected to play a crucial role in breaking the mafia's grip on the region and providing a brighter, drug-free future for the younger generation. In a move that reflects the growing urgency of addressing drug-related issues in Jammu and Kashmir, Team Jammu has strengthened its collaboration with law students to ensure a comprehensive legal framework for curbing the drug trade. The students' involvement will enhance the capacity of local authorities to take swift and decisive actions against drug traffickers and dealers, aligning legal expertise with grassroots mobilization. This strategic partnership is expected to foster a coordinated response, further empowering law enforcement agencies and community stakeholders in the fight against this public health crisis. The event was attended by several distinguished guests, including, who all echoed the importance of youth involvement in this urgent battle against drug abuse. Team Jammu remains committed to its mission of curbing the drug menace and fostering a sense of pride in Jammu and Kashmir's cultural heritage. With the support of these dedicated students and the community at large, the fight against drugs is set to gain new momentum.

Youth Week: CUJ, Ramkrishna Mission hold inspiring talk on 'Swami Vivekananda & Youth'

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: The Office of Dean Students' Welfare, under the patronage of Prof. Sanjeev Jain, Vice-Chancellor, Central University of Jammu (CUJ), in collaboration with Ramkrishna Mission, Jammu, and Vidyarthi Sewa Educational Trust, hosted a series of impactful events under Youth Week, with the highlight being a thought-provoking talk titled "Swami Vivekananda and Youth." This program, organized in commemoration of National Youth Day, inspired participants with Swami Vivekananda's enduring vision for youth empowerment. The keynote speaker, Swami Yajnadhara, Secretary of Ramkrishna Mission, Jammu, captivated the audience with a powerful address. The event witnessed participation from students, faculty, and non-teaching staff, who collectively reflected on Swami

Vivekananda's teachings and their relevance in fostering a progressive and resilient society. As part of the Youth Week celebrations, a free medical camp was organized by Ramkrishna Mission exclusively for university students, faculty, and non-teaching staff. The camp featured comprehensive health check-ups and consultations led by a distinguished team of medical professionals, including Dr. B.D. Sharma (Ex-Director of Health), Dr. Shakti Kumar (Physician), Dr. Shekhar Sharma (Eye Specialist), dedicated staff nurses and Swami Vijayeshananda, Medical Incharge of the Ramkrishna mission. To further intellectual engagement, a bookstall showcasing literature on Swami Vivekananda's life, philosophy, and inspirational works was set up by Ramkrishna Mission. On the eve of Parakram Divas, homage was also paid to Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose. Prof. Ritu Bakshi, Dean of Students Welfare at CUJ, delivered the welcome address, underscoring the importance of unity, dedication, and value-based education among the youth. Prof. Ashwini Kumar Nanda, Dean of the School of Social Sciences and Humanities, emphasized the significance of youth empowerment and education in shaping a brighter future. Sanak Srivats, Secretary of ABVP, J&K, delivered an engaging speech on the transformative role of youth in driving societal progress, inspiring students to actively contribute to community development and leadership. The special guest, Swami Yajnadhara, delivered a compelling address on the theme of Yuva Shakti (Youth Power). Drawing from Swami Vivekananda's ideals, he encouraged students to harness their inner strength, adopt discipline, and commit to serving society. His message highlighted the immense potential of youth in nation-building. Prof. Yashwant Singh, Registrar of CUJ, quoted Swami Vivekananda, reminding the audience, "Ariste, awake, and stop not till the goal is reached." He emphasized the unparalleled energy and potential of young minds to transform society when guided by discipline, values, and purpose. A vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Bharti Gupta.
