

Commissioner/Secy ARI inaugurates new office of Director Press, J&K

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Shabnam Kamili, Commissioner/Secretary to the Government, Administrative Reforms and Inspections (ARI) Department along with other Senior Officers of Administrative Department, inaugurated the newly established office of the Director Press, Jammu & Kashmir at CPO Chowk Jammu. She emphasized the role of Director Press in ensuring transparent and timely dissemination of Government directions to the Government Presses for better printing services to Government department. She stated that the establishment of the new office would strengthen the functioning of both the presses situated at Jammu/Srinagar and build better co-ordination. The new office also played a vital role in bridging the gap between both the presses and will significantly enhance administrative efficiency and improve co-ordination in the functioning of Government presses. Commissioner/Secretary expressed hope that the new office infrastructure would provide a conducive working environment and enable the department to discharge its responsibilities more effectively. Director Press, J&K, Aijaz Ahmad Akhoun along with senior officers and staff of the department, were present on the occasion. The event concluded with a vote of thanks.

Mandeep Kaur reviews sanitation, encroachment issues

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: As part of the Swachh Republic Day campaign being run by the Jammu Municipal Corporation (JMC), Commissioner Secretary, Housing and Urban Development Department, Mandeep Kaur along with Commissioner JMC, Dr. Devansh Yadav, on Thursday undertook a detailed review of sanitation and encroachment-related issues in Wards No. 34, 35, 36, 37 and 38. The inspection covered major localities including Old Janipur, High Court Chowk,

Com Secy HUDD Mandeep Kaur interacting with Commissioner JMC, Dr. Devansh Yadav.

Powerhouse, Lakkar Mandi, Janipur Colony, Paloura, Patoli and surrounding areas. The senior officers conducted on-spot assessment of cleanliness levels in the streets, lanes, drains and public spaces. They reviewed the solid waste management systems and examined the extent of encroachments on roads, footpaths and other public places. During the visit, Mandeep Kaur emphasized that the Swachh Republic Day campaign aims to ensure a clean, hygienic and orderly city ahead of Republic Day celebrations. She directed the concerned officers to ensure daily and thorough cleaning of Corporation. He instructed the JMC field staff, along with the sanitation company engaged by the Corporation, to further intensify cleanliness operations by deploying adequate manpower and machinery, ensuring punctual attendance of sanitation workers and maintaining high service standards across all wards. He stressed that close coordination between the municipal officials and the sanitation agency is essential for achieving the objectives of the Swachh Republic Day campaign. The officers also interacted with the local residents and shopkeepers, listening to their grievances. They encouraged them to actively cooperate with the Municipal Corporation and the sanitation company by avoiding littering, ensuring proper disposal of waste and refraining from encroachments on public land. The residents were also made aware of the importance of collective participation in keeping the city clean and presentable during the national celebrations.
