'Dhan Patra' opened, issue of Sudh Mahadev Shrine settled: Dharmarth Trust

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: After seeking Deputy Commissioner Udhampur's intervention President Dharmarth Trust, Sr Advocate Ajay Gandotra and Secretary Dr. Gopal Parthasarthy have finally got the issue of Dhan Patra (Donation Box) of the Sudh Mahadev Shrine settled amicably with the employees expressing happiness and satisfaction on the resolution of the long pending issue.

In a statement issued here today, President Dharmarth Trust has expressed profound gratitude to the District Administration Udhampur, local committee members and all others present in the temple premises for their unflinching support in getting this important task accomplished in a just and fair manner. He expressed the hope that the District Administration will continue to extend support and will play a significant role in the development of this revered Shrine as envisaged by the Trustees of the Dharmarth Trust. He also appealed to the people especially the stakeholders to continue persistently augmenting the Trust's efforts in enhancing facilities at the famous and revered Shrine like they did in the past.

While congratulating the employees of the Trust, Ajay Gandotra said, "We are committed to our promise and would do everything legitimate in a fair and transparent manner for which we need everyone's support." He said that the Trust stands fully committed to welfare of its employees and will leave no stone unturned in this direction. Pertinent to mention here that there was a similar issue at the famous Purmandal Shrine in Samba also and it was only after the hectic efforts of Dharmarth Trust Ajay Gandotra and Secretary Dr. Gopal Parthasarthy Sharma that the task of settling that issue got accomplished by taking all concerned parties and stakeholders into confidence and opening of donation boxes and counting of the cash and other offerings made by devotees at the revered Shrine under the proper supervision of Deputy Commissioner Samba.
