

Advocate General's Organisation bids adieu to senior Law Officers

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

Srinagar: To bid adieu to the out-going senior Law Officers of J&K Advocate General's Organisation, a farewell party was on Thursday organized to give warm send-off to Bashir Ahmad Dar, Ex-Senior Additional Advocate General; Mir Suhail and Shah Aamir Additional Advocate Generals in the Office Complex, here.

Advocate General, D.C. Raina, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. The gathering was attended by all the Addl. Advocate Generals, Deputy Advocate Generals, Government Advocates and ADO.

The participants highlighted and praised the contribution of the out-

Advocate General, D.C. Raina along with others posing with senior law officers during farewell function.

going Law Officers in a very cordial atmosphere and stated that these Officers always lend a helping hand to their colleagues/ juniors as and when need arise.

The outgoing Law Officers praised the Advocate General for his keen and timely guidance in discharging their duties during their tenure.

The Advocate General in his speech stated that for a good and healthy organisational behaviour, such parties prove really a memorable relationship among the Law Officers and continuation of such events is need of the hour in honour of memorable time; the team has in a joint coordinated effort achieved. The new comers, who were also present, were also given warm welcome to become part of the team and to work in a coordinated and positive approach.

VC JDA, CCI team visit new terminal at Bus Stand

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

Jammu: On the request of Chamber of Commerce and Industries, Jammu, Vice Chairman Jammu Development Authority (JDA), Pankaj Magotra on Thursday visited the newly constructed bus terminal at Jammu and took stock of the hardships being faced by traders.

In this connection, a team of CCI Jammu headed by Arun Gupta apprised the Vice Chairman JDA about the problems being faced by shopkeepers of the old and new terminals of General Bus Stand Jammu.

Rajiv Gupta Junior Vice President, Gaurav Gupta, General Secretary and Rajesh Gupta Secretary also accompanied the President CCI Jammu. Mr Madhu Sharma President General Bus stand shopkeeper Association and Ramesh Tak, President Trader welfare Association General Bus stand were also present.

The shopkeepers of new bus terminal apprised the Vice Chairman that the customers are not reaching the new terminal. They further apprised the Vice Chairman there is several shortcomings for a smooth start of the terminal as some furnishing work is still pending like power connections, water logging, Lift not functional etc. They requested the Vice Chairman to address these genuine issues and take necessary steps to make the newly constructed terminal operational.

CCI Jammu President Arun Gupta interacting with VC JDA Pankaj Magotra.

Arun Gupta said that the Lieutenant Governor, Manoj Sinha had inaugurated the new Bus Stand Terminal in the month of February but surprisingly this much awaited facility is yet to become completely operational.

Arun Gupta appealed to the Vice Chairman JDA to take necessary step in addressing the issues raised by traders of General Bus Stand and take all possible steps for smooth functioning of new Bus Stand Terminal.

Later the Vice Chairman and CCI visited the Old Bus Stand and listened to the problems being faced traders.

The Vice Chairman JDA gave a patient hearing to the traders of Bus Stand and assured the CCI team that all the aforesaid shortcomings will be resolved within shortest possible time.

PILs regarding improvement of medical facilities & infra

DB directs AAG to ensure presenting reports of Committees before Court

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

Jammu: In two different Public Interest Litigations (PILs) regarding improvement of medical facilities and infrastructure in the then State of Jammu and Kashmir and now Union Territory, a Division Bench comprising Chief Justice Pankaj Mithal and Justice Punit Gupta directed AAG appearing for Health & Medical Education Department, UT of J&K to submit that he would ensure that reports of the Committees are placed before the court at the earliest. DB further directed AAG to place record within a month.

When PILs came up for hearing, Division Bench observed that PILs are regarding inadequate medical facilities in Government Medical College, Jammu and for establishment of Organ Transplant Center in J&K. DB further observed that the court vide common order dated 28.02.2020 passed in both the petitions, appointed a Committee of Experts for Jammu Division as well as Kashmir Division and both the Committees were directed to be headed by Dr. Yogesh Chawla, Retired Director, PGIMER Chandigarh and the Directors Health Services Jammu and Kashmir were directed to coordinate and work as Member Secretaries of the Committees, who were requested to visit the Government hospitals in J&K to examine the current facilities available with regard to infrastructure, human resources and equipments in various departments, and to suggest the development to be undertaken in the phased manner with estimated cost. DB further observed that in pursuance to above direction of the court, we are told that the Committees have started functioning but initially they could not visit hospitals on account of COVID-19 pandemic but the Court do not find that Committees have furnished any report so far and directed AAG to submit that he would ensure that reports are placed before the court at the earliest.

While condemning the incident of the bomb explosion in Ludhiana, Chugh said anti-national forces were taking advantage of the situation as the state government has completely failed to give security any priority.

He said drones and bombs are being constantly pushed in Punjab by the Pakistan ISI and it was the duty of the state government to remain extra vigilant against friends without realising that they had become a security threat to the country.

Chugh demanded the Punjab chief minister and the Punjab Home Minister to wake up to the situation and stop politicizing on national security matters. He said the Congress leaders have been playing politics with the national security in Punjab and this is a serious warning to Punjab.

Punjab police hands tied, Congress politicising national security: Chugh

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

CHANDIGARH: BJP National General Secretary

Tarun Chugh on Thursday said the Punjab police was working with hands tied at the back and had been keeping information about drones and Tiffin box bombs under the carpet.

While condemning the incident of the bomb explosion in Ludhiana, Chugh said anti-national forces were taking advantage of the situation as the state government has completely failed to give security any priority.

He said drones and bombs are being constantly pushed in Punjab by the Pakistan ISI and it was the duty of the state government to remain extra vigilant against friends without realising that they had become a security threat to the country.

Chugh demanded the Punjab chief minister and the Punjab Home Minister to wake up to the situation and stop politicizing on national security matters. He said the Congress leaders have been playing politics with the national security in Punjab and this is a serious warning to Punjab.

Speaking on the occasion, the Chief Guest, Prof. Manoj Dhar, Vice Chancellor, JU encouraged the students to participate in such events, which hold the importance in shaping their career.

On this occasion, Guest of Honour, Prof. Naresh Padha, Dean Academic Affairs and Coordinator RUSA 2.0, JU encouraged the students to participate in such events, which hold the importance in shaping their career.

In-charge, Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI, Irtif Mehraj Lone stressed on creating a long term association of JKEDI with UESDC to produce budding entrepreneurs.

Earlier, Prof. Alka Sharma, convener, UESDC formally inaugurated the workshop.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.

The Day two of the workshop was completely dedicated to simulation based activities that relate to a person's specific skill-set. The participants were divided into several groups and different entrepreneurial activities were carried out starting from business idea generation, formulating a business plan, execution of a business plan and evaluation of the plan.

The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Aubid Hussain Parrey, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU. Dr. Anil Gupta, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU presented a vote of thanks.

The inauguration session of Day 1 was conducted by Irtif Mehraj Lone, Incharge of Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI. He highlighted the role of society in shaping the career of young minds. He gave real life examples of some successful businesses like Ola, Uber etc.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.

The Day two of the workshop was completely dedicated to simulation based activities that relate to a person's specific skill-set. The participants were divided into several groups and different entrepreneurial activities were carried out starting from business idea generation, formulating a business plan, execution of a business plan and evaluation of the plan.

The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Aubid Hussain Parrey, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU. Dr. Anil Gupta, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU presented a vote of thanks.

The inauguration session of Day 1 was conducted by Irtif Mehraj Lone, Incharge of Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI. He highlighted the role of society in shaping the career of young minds. He gave real life examples of some successful businesses like Ola, Uber etc.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.

The Day two of the workshop was completely dedicated to simulation based activities that relate to a person's specific skill-set. The participants were divided into several groups and different entrepreneurial activities were carried out starting from business idea generation, formulating a business plan, execution of a business plan and evaluation of the plan.

The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Aubid Hussain Parrey, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU. Dr. Anil Gupta, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU presented a vote of thanks.

JCMS celebrates 132nd Birth Anniversary of Justice Mehar Chand Mahajan

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

Jammu: Jammu Central Mahajan Sabha (JCMS) celebrated 132nd Birth Anniversary of Justice Mehar Chand Mahajan with great enthusiasm here at Mahajan Bhawan, Shalamar Road.

Romesh Gupta, Sabha President, while remembering Justice Mehar Chand Mahajan, said that it was he as a member of Radcliffe Boundary Commission for Punjab who ensured a road connectivity to Jammu through Gurdaspur, without which accession of the State with India could not have been possible. Later as Prime Minister of Jammu & Kashmir, Justice Mahajan was instrumental in getting the State's accession with India, he said adding that when Justice Mehar Chand retired as 3rd Chief Justice of India there was no pendency of cases in the Court.

The employees who were felicitated on the occasion included Sanjeev Kumar EO/AO, Amit Jakhmola EO/AO, S. Mini DPA, T. Rajan DPA, Chiranjit Lal Sharma SSSA, Sanjeev Kumar SSSA, Kancharan, Archana, Bhanupriya and Shakti.

He said that his role as social reformer within the community and outside would always be remembered. Mayor, Chander Mohan Gupta also highlighted the achievements and recalled the earlier career on the life of Justice Mehar Chand Mahajan. Ravi Rohmetra, a noted columnist, spoke about the life history of Justice Mehar Chand Mahajan and recalled his contribution in different capacities. He said as Chief Justice of India, Justice Mahajan laid foundation stone of the existing Supreme Court Complex in 1954. Subash Gupta, Vice President of the Sabha, read a poem on the life of Justice Mehar Chand.

JCMS members paying tributes to Justice Mehar Chand Mahajan.

He also spoke that three books were written by Justice titled "Preserving Unity of India How to increase food production and Kashmiri Accession to India. The proceedings of the function was conducted by Sanjay Mahajan, General Secretary of the Sabha. A large number of prominent persons of Mahajan Biradri participated in the commemorative function. Books on the life history of Justice Mehar Chand Mahajan were also distributed.

Among those present on the occasion included Yash Paul Gupta (Chief Patron), Shiv Partap Gupta (Sr Vice President), Harinder Gupta (Sr Vice President), Om Parkash Mahajan (Kaku Shah (Sr Vice President), Surinder Gupta, Prab Dayal Gupta, Dr. Mohan Lal Gupta, Rajesh Chaudhary, Balbir Gupta, Yash Paul Gupta, Ramesh Gupta (Bartan Wale), Munish Gupta, Kulbhushan Gupta (Mannu), Atul Gupta, Arun Gupta (President Chamber of Commerce & Industry along with his team members), Bimal Gupta, Dinesh Gupta, Vijay Gupta, Vijay Gupta, Ram Kumar Gupta and Darshan Gupta.

The inauguration session of Day 1 was conducted by Irtif Mehraj Lone, Incharge of Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI. He highlighted the role of society in shaping the career of young minds. He gave real life examples of some successful businesses like Ola, Uber etc.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.

The Day two of the workshop was completely dedicated to simulation based activities that relate to a person's specific skill-set. The participants were divided into several groups and different entrepreneurial activities were carried out starting from business idea generation, formulating a business plan, execution of a business plan and evaluation of the plan.

The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Aubid Hussain Parrey, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU. Dr. Anil Gupta, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU presented a vote of thanks.

The inauguration session of Day 1 was conducted by Irtif Mehraj Lone, Incharge of Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI. He highlighted the role of society in shaping the career of young minds. He gave real life examples of some successful businesses like Ola, Uber etc.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.

The Day two of the workshop was completely dedicated to simulation based activities that relate to a person's specific skill-set. The participants were divided into several groups and different entrepreneurial activities were carried out starting from business idea generation, formulating a business plan, execution of a business plan and evaluation of the plan.

The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Aubid Hussain Parrey, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU. Dr. Anil Gupta, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU presented a vote of thanks.

The inauguration session of Day 1 was conducted by Irtif Mehraj Lone, Incharge of Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI. He highlighted the role of society in shaping the career of young minds. He gave real life examples of some successful businesses like Ola, Uber etc.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.

The Day two of the workshop was completely dedicated to simulation based activities that relate to a person's specific skill-set. The participants were divided into several groups and different entrepreneurial activities were carried out starting from business idea generation, formulating a business plan, execution of a business plan and evaluation of the plan.

The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Aubid Hussain Parrey, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU. Dr. Anil Gupta, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU presented a vote of thanks.

The inauguration session of Day 1 was conducted by Irtif Mehraj Lone, Incharge of Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI. He highlighted the role of society in shaping the career of young minds. He gave real life examples of some successful businesses like Ola, Uber etc.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.

The Day two of the workshop was completely dedicated to simulation based activities that relate to a person's specific skill-set. The participants were divided into several groups and different entrepreneurial activities were carried out starting from business idea generation, formulating a business plan, execution of a business plan and evaluation of the plan.

The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Aubid Hussain Parrey, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU. Dr. Anil Gupta, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU presented a vote of thanks.

The inauguration session of Day 1 was conducted by Irtif Mehraj Lone, Incharge of Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI. He highlighted the role of society in shaping the career of young minds. He gave real life examples of some successful businesses like Ola, Uber etc.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.

The Day two of the workshop was completely dedicated to simulation based activities that relate to a person's specific skill-set. The participants were divided into several groups and different entrepreneurial activities were carried out starting from business idea generation, formulating a business plan, execution of a business plan and evaluation of the plan.

The workshop was coordinated by Dr. Aubid Hussain Parrey, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU. Dr. Anil Gupta, the Core Committee Member, UESDC, JU presented a vote of thanks.

The inauguration session of Day 1 was conducted by Irtif Mehraj Lone, Incharge of Centre for Innovation and Incubation, JKEDI. He highlighted the role of society in shaping the career of young minds. He gave real life examples of some successful businesses like Ola, Uber etc.

The next session was conducted by Shivani, Academic instructor of Incubation Centre, JKEDI on the business idea generation. Dr. Vinod Sharma, Head Centre for Business development, District Office Jammu in the next session stressed upon how to formulate a business plan as well as its successful execution.