STATE TIMES NEWS
SRINAGAR: Director General, J&K Institute of Management, Public Administration and Rural Development (JK IMPARD), Saurabh Bhaghat, on Saturday chaired the inaugural function of one day online training course on "CPIOs under Right to Information (RTI)" here at IMPARD main campus, Srinagar.

Officers designated in various departments of J&K government as First Appellate Authorities (FAAs), Public Information Officers (PIOs) and Assistant Public Information Officers (APIOs) under the RTI Act, 2005, participated in the training course.

Speaking on the occasion, Saurabh Bhaghat said that transparency is the bedrock of good governance and providing timely information to citizens is the most important indicator of such dispensation. He said that RTI is a wonderful platform that can act as a feedback mechanism for all the government departments, therefore, the public authorities (APIOs, PIOs, and FAAs) should learn to treat RTI as a yardstick of good governance.

Director General further said that public authorities should monitor RTI application properly and refrain from denying information unnecessarily.

He said that the Institute will keep on organizing such programmes which will act as an effective tool for improving governance and administrative machinery in the Union Territory of Jammu

STATE TIMES NEWS
SRINAGAR: A day-long interaction chaired by India's SME Forum with the selected women entrepreneurs of Jammu and Kashmir under programme "SAATH" was held on Saturday here at the state office of Jammu Kashmir Rural Livelihoods Mission (JKRLM).
The interaction programme included over 30 women entrepreneurs from the hand-made and handicraft sector who have export ready products. Speaking on the occasion, Mission Director JKRLM, Dr Syed Sehrish Asgar said that the main objective of conducting today's workshop was not only to orient the already identified Self Help Group members but to offer them necessary product and design intervention to meet the design demand of International markets. Saath members were made aware of colour schemes, raw material sourcing, value addition on handicraft products, quality marks and cataloguing of these products, she said.

Dr Seshrith further stated that SAATH programme will unleash the export potential of women entrepreneurs of Jammu and Kashmir by offering them insight & exposure to requirements of international market. The workshop also offered insights on ensuring quality assurance & standard marks to make these products competitive in international markets.

MD JKRLM while interacting with the participants highlighted the journey of SAATH programme and its important role in Development of effective entrepreneurial & marketing skills. Dr Seshrith added that the initiative aims to teach women such skills and convert their business into high order enterprise, it will be unique experience for the rural women entrepreneurs where in the buyers will have direct interface with the International buyers / dealers which will in turn boost the moral and open the marketing avenues for the women entrepreneurs of J&K.

On 1st of Sept ,2021 , Lt Governor, Manoj Sinha launched this initiative with an aim to provide support to selected Women entrepreneurs to overcome financial , social and marketing challenges in their business ventures, she said.
