Awareness campaign against drugs organised at GDC Samba

SWD officials along with students and faculty of college during the programme.

STATE TIMES NEWS
SAMBA: The Department of Social Welfare in collaboration with district administration organized an awareness programme titled 'Drug Demand Reduction' at Government Degree College, Samba.

Secretary, Social Welfare Department, Sheetal Nanda, inaugurated the program while Director Social Welfare Department, Jammu, Vivek Sharma, Deputy Commissioner, Anuradha Gupta besides other senior officers were also present. The Secretary said that J&K government is making dedicated efforts to eradicate drug menace from the UT. "Drug abuse has emerged as one of the most serious social problems across the globe tearing apart our social fabric and posing a threat to mankind", she observed.

She highlighted some of the initiatives being taken up by SWD to eradicate this social evil from the society which inter alia included awareness programmes, rehabilitation and counseling for drug abusers besides medical interventions.

On the occasion, FM Big 92.7 managed the campaign through RJ Juhu and team.

The audience was mesmerized with stage act performance by Natrang Group on Drug abuse while Singer Sonali Dogra also enthralled the students with latest bollywood songs and songs on drug reduction.

During the function, De-addiction counseling was also provided by NGO Mashwara while an interaction with a drug rehabilitator was also organized.

Senior Superintendent of Police, Rajesh Sharma, District Social Welfare Officer, Deep Kumar, Principal Degree College Samba, Big FM MD Vikrant, Head Natrang Theatre group besides college students and locals were present on the occasion.

DH Ramban starts facility of Laprolisation surgery

STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN: The District Hospital Ramban has started Laprolisation surgery as the procedure was successfully conducted on two women, here today. Gynaecologist Dr. Dinesh Kumar, assisted by Dr. DV Singh conducted the surgery affirming that the local women willing to undergo Laprolisation will not have to move to out of the district or wait for a camp for the same. According to the Medical Superintendent, District Hospital, Ramban, Dr. Hameed Zargar earlier the Laprolisation surgery was conducted at Laprolisation camps causing much inconvenience to women due to huge rush. "Now women will not have to wait longer for the Laprolisation and will get this facility every week" he said and added that for this special facility, Dr. Dinesh was imparted special training in Jammu. He added that this facility would help in promoting family planning in the district.

Chir Pine needle-based handicraft training conducted

STATE TIMES NEWS
NOWSHERA: Handicrafts Training based on Chir pine needles as raw material was conducted in Sunderbani Range with an aim to generate livelihood among local youth and to prevent the forest fires, for which Chir Pine needles act as fuel.

Every year forest fires occur in Nowshera Forest Division causing loss of forest and wildlife. Collection and processing of needles would help in prevention of forest fires thus averting major disaster. Sunderbani Range of Nowshera Forest Division started preparation of handicraft items using Chir Pine Needles. A number of items such as Baskets, Trays and Hats have been prepared using Chir Pine Needles by involving Village Forest Committee Brevi.

Two VFCs Salheri and Brevi have been selected for the innovative work as pilot projects.

At the initial stage, a Self Help Group of 10 women has been constituted at Brevi, which is making the handicraft items.

An advance training program was organised at Salheri in collaboration with District Administration Rajouri initiated the advance training for the women SHGs who are associated with the production of handicraft items.

The training will last for 10 days for which core trainers are invited from Himachal Pradesh.

Neelima Shah, Divisional Forest Officer Nowshera, Vinod Banyal, Additional Deputy Commissioner Sunderbani and Rakesh Verma Range Forest Office, Sunderbani.
