Call on Dhawan's future expected after Ishan emerges strong contender

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: Veteran opener Shikhar Dhawan's ODI future is likely to be discussed by the new selection committee, which is expected to be formed soon, and a tough call will not be a surprise after Ishan Kishan emerged as a strong option with his scintillating double hundred.

Dhawan has struggled badly in eight out of his last nine ODIs. Also, the Delhi left-hander batted with a dated approach which is proving to be detrimental for the team during the Powerplay overs.

It is not always about intent but also the inability to force the pace with a limited range of strokes to choose from. Shubman Gill or a Kishan are more innovative in this day and age of T20s.

While no date has been given, the BCCI will hold a review meeting of the team's performance and discuss the roadmap with head coach Dravid and NCA head VVS Laxman on the way ahead.

It is not easy to discard a player who has played 167 ODIs and is currently third highest (6793) in the list of current India run-getters behind Rohit (9454) and Virat Kohli (12471).

There is a school of thought that Dhawan be given at least the last six ODIs in January against Sri Lanka and New Zealand and then take a call before the Australia ODIs at the end of March.

But the counter-argument to that is what happens when Shubman Gill, who has been one of the most consistent ODI batters in last six months, is back in the ODI fold in January.

The primary problem with Dhawan has been a sharp decline in his strike-rate from 100 plus till 2019 World Cup to a dismal 75 in 2022.

After Ishan Kishan's double hundred and more importantly, the freshness that he has brought in the approach, will certainly make the team management ponder over the sensitive selection matters.

It is not easy to discard a player who has played 167 ODIs and is currently third highest (6793) in the list of current India run-getters behind Rohit (9454) and same ODI XI just like Rohit, KL Rahul and Kohli can't be top three in T20Is.

Kohli, it has been observed in recent times, loves playing the anchor role more often than not with a designated enforcer at the other end doing the front-loading or heavy-lifting.

Even skipper Rohit could play his own attacking game if a player like Gill or Kishan is holding the fort at the other end. Dhawan also plays a game style where he makes a cautious start and accelerates only deep into the middle overs, making up for the dot balls consumed.

That kind of conservative style has been hurting India for sometime and England has been showing that now is the time for the change in approach.

Hence it would be increasingly difficult for Dhawan to keep his place in the ODI set-up.

Another aspect that would bother the decision-makers is that apart from ODIs, he isn't playing any format. While he did play one domestic T20 (Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy) and two 50-over games (Vijay Hazare), Dhawan hasn't played any first-class games for the last four years.

"There is no substitute of game time. Do you mean to say that Shikhar will start playing ODIs in mid-January without any match practice for next one month. Even Surya is committed to playing Ranji Trophy games for Mumbai as he wants to be in groove.

"You can understand when he is playing multi-formats. So on what basis will you choose him," a former national selector, who has worked with both MS Dhoni and Virat Kohli, said.

India have a packed calendar starting with the home season from January 3.

While there is a lot of curiosity on Rohit's future as T20I captain and Hardik Pandya's imminent ascendancy, the way BCCI functions, one might not see any decision being taken but a silent phase out process could be followed.

"Why do you need to announce Rohit's removal from T20I captaincy? Are T20Is top priority in 2023? No. BCCI has never worked as per public sentiments. It has its own style of functioning," said a BCCI old-timer.

"But yes, you can easily ask Rohit, Virat and KL Rahul to focus on ODIs and Test series against Australia which are more important for the time being and let Hardik lead in the six T20Is."

and works including drainage construction interior links, tile works on lanes, bylanes and development of parks, bridges, culverts at all designated spots be expedited in these wards to ensure better facilities to general public. Stressing on early execution of works taken up during recently held My Town My Pride ambitious programme in all 6 Municipalities of Budgam, DC said that he would visit 72 wards of all Municipalities of the district to take on spot assessment of essential services and development process. He also took first hand appraisal of services, supply of potable water supply, construction of lanes and drains and other infrastructure development. The DC directed concerned to ensure smooth supply of essential services

Between January 3 and February 1, India play 12 white ball matches in a space of 29 days, including six against New Zealand and six against Sri Lanka.

Six ODIs and six T20Is are in 12 different cities, which also means 12 different flights. While travelling is an under-rated aspect of workload management, it is expected that T20Is and ODIs will have at least 75 to 80 percent different names.

The ODI squad may have players who the team management thinks are going to play the 2023 edition.

"But yes, you can easily ask Rohit, Virat and KL Rahul to focus on ODIs and Test series against Australia which are more important for the time being and let Hardik lead in the six T20Is."

Stressing on cleanliness and sanitation, the DC appealed locals to avoid dumping of garbage, cow dung and other waste material roadside and instructed concerned to ensure prompt removal and dumping of it.

Between January 3 and February 1, India play 12 white ball matches in a space of 29 days, including six against New Zealand and six against Sri Lanka.

"The BCCI Medical Team will take a call on his availability for the second and final Test at a later stage. The All-India Senior Selection Committee has named Abhimanyu Easwaran as his replacement for the first Test."

The second Test begins in Mirpur on December 22 and Rohit will be racing against time to get fit for the match.

Easwaran comes into the side after scoring 299 runs in two games for the India 'A' side currently touring Bangladesh.

Pacer Navdeep Saini and uncapped Saurabh Kumar were named as replacements for injured Mohammad Shami and Ravindra Jadeja. Left-arm spinner Saurabh was the player of the match.
