

Prof R K Chhibber Memorial Trust invites entries for Journalism Awards

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Prof R K Chhibber Memorial Trust, New Delhi, has invited entries for the two journalism awards which it established jointly with the Press Club of Jammu to honour outstanding work in the field of journalism by media-persons based in Jammu or working in newspapers published from Jammu.

The Awards have been instituted in the memory of Prof R K Chhibber, former Director, Education, Jammu, who passed away in 2014. Each award carries a cash prize of Rs 25,000 and a citation. The winners would be decided by a three-member independent jury.

The two categories of awards are Journalist of the Year (Political Reporting) and Journalist of the Year (Uncovering Jammu).

Varanasi restored to old glory in last 8 years: Yogi Adityanath

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

VARANASI/LUCKNOW: Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Sunday said that Varanasi, Prime Minister Narendra Modi's constituency, has in the past eight years seen a restoration of its "pristine glory" as a spiritual and cultural centre of the country, attracting over 1 crore tourists in a month.

He said "the city has seen a transformation of its appearance with better infrastructure, cleanliness and beautification of ghats and renovation of temples."

The CM was addressing the 'Prabuddha Jan Sammelan' at Sampurnanand Sanskrit University ground in Varanasi.

"While earlier, the city witnessed the arrival of 1 crore tourists in a year, now 1 crore tourists visit the city in a month alone,"

While the first Award will be given to a reporter(s) (collaborative efforts will also be eligible to apply) who does outstanding political reporting on issues concerning the state of J&K, the second Award will be given for outstanding, particularly investigative (but not limited to it only), reporting on an issue concerning Jammu region.

The reports should have been published in the year 2021 (January 1, 2021-December 31, 2021). The language of reporting should either be Hindi or English.

The last date for receiving entries complete in all respects is December 16, 2022.

The detailed rules and regulations governing the awards are available on the website of the Press Club of Jammu.

Adityanath said.

"Till 2016, sewer water used to flow on the roads and there were heaps of garbage on the streets while the condition of the ghats was pathetic in Kashi, but today the change is in front of all of us.

"Today, Kashi has four-lane connectivity from all sides. It is connected with all major cities of the country through air. Ghats have been beautified and the city cleaned. The city is emerging as a major educational and health centre," he said.

Expressing his gratitude to the PM, Adityanath said that Modi introduced for the first time inland waterways in Kashi, which helped export of food grains, fruits, and vegetables from the state to foreign countries.

He also said that if BJP wins the municipal elec-

19 State legislatures have less than 10 per cent women lawmakers: Govt

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: Women representation in parliament and most state legislatures across the country is below 15 per cent with 19 of state assemblies having less than 10 per cent women lawmakers, according to a government data.

The state legislatures which have more than 10 per cent women lawmakers are Bihar (10.70), Chhattisgarh (14.44), Haryana (10), Jharkhand (12.35), Punjab (11.11), Rajasthan (12), Uttarakhand (11.43), Uttar Pradesh (11.66), West Bengal (13.70) and Delhi (11.43).

According to the data presented by Law and Justice Minister Kiren Rijiju in the Lok Sabha on December 9, Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Goa, Gujarat, Himachal Pradesh, Kerala, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Manipur, Odisha, Sikkim, Tamil Nadu and Telangana have less than 10 per cent women legislators.

In the recently held Gujarat assembly elections, 8.2 per cent of the elected representatives are women, whereas, in Himachal Pradesh, only one woman has been elected this time.

According to the data, the share of women MPs in Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha stands at 14.94 per cent and 14.05 per cent, respectively.

At the same time, the average number of women MLAs in assemblies across the nation accounts for only eight per cent. The question regarding the representation of women MPs and MLAs in Parliament and state legislatures was raised by Trinamool

Congress MP in Lok Sabha Abhishek Banerjee, who also asked the Centre about the steps it has taken to increase their overall representation.

He further asked whether the government has any plans of bringing the Women's Reservation Bill in Parliament.

To which Rijiju said, "Gender justice is an important commitment of the government. All political parties need to carefully discuss this issue on the basis of consensus before bringing the Constitution Amendment Bill before Parliament."

Recently, political parties like Biju Janata Dal (BJD), Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD), Janata Dal United JD(U) and Trinamool Congress (TMC) Have asked the government to introduce and pass the Women's Reservation Bill afresh in Parliament.

"BJD has asked the Centre to pass the bill during the current winter session of Parliament," Rajya Sabha member Dr Sasmit Patra told PTL.

"If the government brings a bill, our party will support it," he said, adding that Odisha Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik has time and again expressed his commitment to the issue of women's empowerment. A few days ago, in a meeting of the Business Advisory Committee convened by Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla, Trinamool Congress's Sudip

Bandopadhyay demanded an all-party meeting on the issue, which was supported by other parties.

SAD MP Harsimrat Kaur Badal said the time has come to pass the Women's Reservation Bill and give women their due. JDU MP Rajeev Ranjan Singh said it is time to empower women and the government should bring this bill.

The bill, which seeks to reserve one-third of seats in Lok Sabha and state legislative assemblies for women, was first introduced in Parliament in 1996.

It was passed in the Rajya Sabha in 2010, but after the dissolution of the 15th Lok Sabha, the bill lapsed.
