'Mentally unsound' man kills mother, two others in Anantnag

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: A "mentally unsound" man allegedly killed his mother and two others by launching an assault on them in Jammu and Kashmir's Anantnag district on Friday, officials said. Javaid Ahmad picked up a stick and started hitting unsuspecting people, including his mother; who were out for early morning chores in the Ashmugam area, the officials said. Three people – including the mother of the assailant – succumbed to the injuries suffered in the assault, while at least seven others were injured in the incident, they added. The injured are undergoing treatment. The deceased have been identified as Hafeeza, Ghulam Nabi and Mohammad Amin. The condition of one the injured people is critical and has been referred to the Sher-i-Kashmir Institute of Medical Sciences (SKIMS) Hospital here, the officials said. One of the injured persons told police that several people tried to overpower the assailant but failed. The accused, who is reportedly an alcoholic, has been arrested by police.

SHRADHANJALI

Shri Jugal Kishore son of late Shri Ram Chand S Sharma and late Smt Sheela Devi was born on January 18, 2964 at Jammu. He was the only son of his parents with three sisters.

After completing matriculation, he started his own business. By dint of his hard work and ability he established his business soon. He got married to Smt Vijay Kumari and was blessed with three sons and a daughter. Presently his daughter is married in a good family and is well settled while his sons are pursuing their studies.

He was a very simple, gentle and a devotee of Mata Vaishno Devi who frequently visited the Holy Shrine. He was very polite, social and helpful person, always ready to help the poor and needy people. He breathed his last on December 14, 2022 in a tragic road accident. He is survived by wife, sons, daughter and son-in-law.
