JKPYC joins Bharat Jodo Yatra in New Delhi

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: Jammu and Kashmir Pradesh Youth Congress (JKPYC) leaders joined Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra in New Delhi. IYC leaders Amarpreet Lalli, Jagdev Gaga, JKPYC President Uday Bham Chib, IYC Secretary Navneet Kaur & Amit Pathania, IYC Jt. Secretary Manpreet Singh Mani, Smanla Dorje, Divyansh Jamwal, Anirudh Sawhney and others will take on the padyatra which entered Delhi on Saturday and march from Bhaderpur to Red Fort. The Congress party's Bharat Jodo Yatra is on its 108th day having covered around 3000 kms across nine states. The Youth Congress leaders from Jammu Kashmir eagerly joined the Yatra as it entered Delhi and are also preparing for the Yatra's welcome in Jammu Kashmir itself which will happen sometime in January of next year. The Yatris had gathered in huge numbers at the Badapur border to welcome the Yatra when it entered Delhi. The PYC leaders said that it was a great opportunity to march with the Yatris in this historic padyatra as it passes through the national capital.

They said that they have come to join and support Rahul Gandhi Ji's Yatra as it passes through the capital. Thousands of people had joined the yatra to witness this movement first hand and this yatra also exemplifies Congress party's history of personal sacrifice for the greater good. The yatris were seen in great spirits even after walking thousands of kms and, the Youth Congress members stated that it is because of the motive of the yatra is to spread harmony and love as opposed to any false agenda or narrative.

Tourism Directorate Jammu organises 'Nowshera Folk Festival' as part of Offbeat Tourist Destinations promotional campaign

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAJOURI: The Department of Tourism, J&K is organizing a plethora of activities in the offbeat tourist destinations of J&K UT.

Continuing with the promotional campaigns, especially in the Jammu region, the Directorate of Tourism Jammu, in collaboration with District Administration Rajouri, today organised 'Nowshera Folk Festival' in the lawns of Boys Higher Secondary School Nowshera.

The event was inaugurated by Deputy Commissioner Rajouri, Vikas Kundal along with DDC Chairperson Naseem Liaquat Choudhury.

The event started with a mesmerizing performance by Dogri performers followed by a scintillating Gojri and Pahari dance. The star performances in the show included brilliant singing performances by Shoaib Kandoo, Shivam Shiva and Sandeep Brar. The crowd danced and thoroughly enjoyed the event and it was received with great response in the town.

Earlier in the day, Additional Deputy Commissioner Nowshera Kartar Singh, Assistant Director Tourism Rajouri, Ambika Bali; BDO Nowshera, Khalil Rehman and SDPO Nowshera Adil Ahmed flagged off a 'Heritage Tour Bus' from DC Rajouri, Vikas Kundal and others witnessing cultural programme.

Dak Bunglow Nowshera which carried bloggers and local travel enthusiasts to Mangla Mata, Brigadier Usman War Memorial, Khambah Fort, Khori Baba Shrine and culminated at the Thakurdwara Temple in Nowshera.

It is pertinent to mention here that Nowshera is an off-beat tourist destination of J&K UT and is a very important border tourism destination for interested tourists.

Speaking on the occasion, Deputy Commissioner Rajouri emphasized the need to promote the offbeat tourist destinations of Rajouri District. He appreciated the effort of the Tourism Department in organising such grand events at Nowshera and Sunderbani where local participation was also good. He further said that the department should continue its efforts and also promote homestays in the area.
