

Balance between studies, extracurricular activities key to success: DC Jammu

DC Jammu, Avny Lavasa posing with students and faculty.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Career Counseling and Placement Cell of Government Degree College (GDC) Jindrah, in collaboration with NSS unit on Monday organised a one day workshop on 'Career in Civil Services'.

Deputy Commissioner Jammu Avny Lavasa was the Chief Guest, who had a thorough interaction with students on 'Career in Civil Services'.

Tehsildar Dansal, Dhruv Gupta, Anil Sharma and Chairman All J&K Panchayat Conference were also present on the occasion. The College Principal Dr. Raj Shree Dhar welcomed the guests. The resource person of the workshop was Career Counseling Officer, Dushyant Singh and Employment Officer, Shivali Chaudhary. Both resource persons presented their views on various topics, ranging from current affairs to enrollment on the Employment portal.

Pertinent to mention that Jindrah is a far flung area in District Jammu and it was a golden opportunity for students to have one on one interaction session with Deputy Commissioner Jammu Avny Lavasa. The DC blessed the students with her experience and guidance for the future. She also cleared the doubts of students and inspired them to opt civil services as their career option.

Giving them the success mantra, the Deputy Commissioner said that the balance between studies and extracurricular activities is key
