Retd ZEO Rashmi Wazir with her supporters joins BJP

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Rashmi Wazir (Retired ZEO) and daughter of Daya Krishan Kotwal, former BJP State President and tall leader of Jammu & Kashmir hailing from Bhaderwah, accompanied by a large number of supporters joined Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), at party head-quarter, Trikuta Nagar, here on Friday.

Ashok Koul, General Secretary (organization), J&K BJP, Kavinder Gupta, former Deputy Chief Minister, Dr. Devinder Kumar Manyal, former minister & General Secretary, Anuradha Charak, Vice-President, Sanjita Dogra, President, Mahila Morcha, Baldev Singh Billawaria, former Dy. Mayor welcomed the new entrants in the party fold.

Ashok Koul, while welcoming the new entrants into the party fold, recalled the contribution of late Daya Krishan Kotwal towards the nation, society and the party. He said that living an exemplary life, Kotwal inspired everyone who came in contact with him and added that the party is sure that Rashmi would serve the nation and the party with the same zeal.

Kavinder Gupta, while welcoming Rashmi Kotwal and her supporters, appreciated them for the decision. He said that Rashmi Kotwal, during her service, served the society as a social worker also and is willing to contribute to society after her retirement.

Dr. Devinder Kumar Manyal said that the family of Daya Krishan Kotwal has gone through all the struggles in Bhaderwah along with him and the party has faith in her that her sincere efforts will further the mission of the party.

Sanjita Dogra welcomed her into the party fold and said that her presence will reinforce the BJP as well as Mahila Morcha.

Rashmi Wazir said that it was only a matter of time after her retirement that she made her mind to officially join the BJP. She said that patriotism runs through her veins and she felt so alive after joining the party as all the earlier remembrances with her father (Daya Krishan Kotwal) refreshed in her mind. She said that inspired by her father's struggles she always remained connected to the emotions of societal service and nationalism throughout her life until now.

Mahila Morcha General Secretaries Neha Mahajan and Reema Padha managed the proceedings of the joining programme.

Performance of Sericulture Department reviewed

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A meeting to review performance of Sericulture Development Department in Jammu Division was on Friday chaired by Ajaz Ahmad Bhat, Director Sericulture J&K. During the review meeting, the concerned functionaries gave brief developmental activities of the Department under pre-cocoon and post-cocoon sectors in Jammu Division. It was appraised that presently Sericulture has a lot of potential in Jammu Division with cocoon production ranging between 450 MT to 500 MT.

The Director desired to develop Sericulture on modern lines to enable the farmers associated with the sector to get better returns. He laid stress on resource utilizations and identifying the requirements of the Sector in the present context for generating additional sources of income for the rural masses and emphasized that in this endeavor efforts need to be taken by all the stakeholders by taking steps in the right direction.

The Director Sericulture exhorted the officers present in the meeting to put in concerted efforts to achieve targets and book expenditure by or before 25 March, 2024 which shall serve as an indicator for the performance of each officer responsible for the same.

During the deliberations, the Director Sericulture J&K impressed upon all the District Sericulture Officers to identify land for establishment of Kissan Khidmat Ghars across all the Districts of J&K which will serve as a one stop Center for extending farmer oriented services. Besides, the District Sericulture Officers were further asked to furnish follow-up action with regard to the developmental projects being executed by the engineering wings in J&K and make personal efforts to remove all the hurdles hampering the developmental projects presently in progress.

The meeting was attended by Additional Director Sericulture Jammu, Ashwani Kr. Sharma; Development Officer; Rajouri, Officer Extension & Trainings, all District Sericulture Officers of Jammu Division, field Officers along with Accounts Planning and Technical Sections of the Directorate of Sericulture Jammu

In his concluding remarks, the Director Sericulture instructed the Officers that production levels need to be doubled in the next five years through the required interventions for a substantial increase in quality Cocoon/Raw silk Production from the present levels with massive Mulberry plantations. Department needs to work in synergy with clear cut strategies and developmental plans with focus on specific technological interventions at farmers level like use of Hot Air Drying facility by farmers, organizing cocoon markets within minimum time and covering the unexplored and potential areas through Cluster approach. The appointment orders under SRO-43 were also distributed among the next kin of ex-employees of Kathua and Reasi District by the Director:
