Kohli, Trilochan Dutt and Rajesh Gupta.

Parmod Kapahi said that the PM Vishwakarma Scheme has designed to bolster local economies, bridging the gap between age-old artistry and modern market demands.

Parmod Kapahi urged the party workers to remain proactive at the grass roots level and highlight the essential features of the PM Vishwakarma Scheme in their respective areas so that maximum number of people will take benefit of this marvellous scheme.

Emphasizing that BJP's workers have always played a vital role in achieving the targets set by the party, Purnima asked party cadre to reach out to the needy people who are eligible under the aforesaid scheme but have not availed the benefit so far.

For this it is necessary to disseminate information and generate awareness about the same among the left out lot. Moreover, it is also necessary to interact with beneficiaries of PM Vishwakarma and other schemes and their personal success stories and experience with those who are yet to avail the benefit of the schemes.

Purnima Sharma highlighted salient features of the Pradhan Mantri Vishwakarma Yojana asserting that it has the full potential of empowering the aspirants be it the youth including women or other artisans and crafts-persons.

He said that the seriousness of PM Modi and his Govt in this regard can be well gauged from the fact that a whole of government approach has been adopted to ensure the widest possible participation of all concerned for the ultimate benefit of the people of this nation.

Traders express solidarity with families of brave martyrs, condemns Surankote Attack

Traders raising anti-Pak slogans during a protest rally at Jammu.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: On the call of the Traders Federation Ware House Nehru Market (Regd) Jammu Traders in large numbers took out Mashaal Rally (candle march) from Federation office to Bikram Chowk to pay tributes to the Army Jawans who attained Martyrdom in Surankote, Poonch Attack on Thursday.

Traders, while passing through main road ware house, raised slogans against Pakistan and the anti-national forces who are behind this attack.

Deepak Gupta, President Traders Federation Ware House Nehru Market Jammu voiced searing concerns about Pakistan's direct complicity in providing sanctuary to terrorists through its sinister intelligence agency, ISI.

Deepak strongly condemned Pakistan for carrying on the policy of enmity against India and harboring terrorists on its soil and using them to threaten life of the people & security forces in JKUT. He underscored that the sacrifices made by these unflinching soldiers in the face of a barbaric terror attack would forever be etched in the nation's memory.

He demanded that the UT administration should immediately identify the cowardly terrorists so that they are brought to justice. He demanded that law and enforcement agencies should also conduct a security review to ensure fool-proof security in Rajouri-Poonch districts of Jammu Division.

Among those who were present in the Mashaal Rally were Munish Mahajan, Senior Vice President, Abhimanyu Gupta, Vice President, Sham Lal Langer, General Secretary, Vishal Gupta, Secretary of the Federation.

Army empowers 40 Kashmiri youth with innovative "smartphone film making course"

Army officers along with participating youth posing for a photograph at Srinagar.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: The Indian Army as part of its initiative conducted a Smart Phone Film Making Course in collaboration with Film & Television Institute of India (FTII Pune) aimed at fostering creativity and skill development among Kashmiri youth. The "Smartphone Film Making Course" provided aspiring filmmakers in the region with the knowledge and tools needed to tell compelling stories using their smartphones, defence spokesperson said. Recognizing the power of visual storytelling in today's digital age, the Indian Army is committed to empowering the youth of Kashmir with valuable skills that not only enhance their creative abilities but also open doors to new opportunities, spokesperson said adding that the course covered various aspects of filmmaking, including scriptwriting, cinematography, editing, and post-production techniques, all using the convenience of smartphones.

The course was conducted by experienced professionals and mentors in the field from FTII & was designed to be accessible and inclusive, welcoming participants with diverse levels of experience.

It is a testament to the Indian Army's commitment to supporting education, creativity, and skill development in regions that benefit from such initiatives.

Participants not only gained a hands-on experience but will also have the opportunity to showcase their work through a dedicated platform, creating a bridge between their stories and a global audience.

The Indian Army believes in the transformative power of education and hopes that this initiative will contribute to the holistic development of the Kashmiri youth.
