NSS Units of the College. The event of Kill the Chill-Think Gandhian way- Do Charity was inaugurated on 2nd December 2023 by Worthy Principal Prof. Romesh Kumar Gupta along with NSS POs Dr. Gurpreet Kour and Prof. Sanjeet Singh by starting the collection of warm clothes donated by the volunteers, students of the college and further followed by the staff members. The clothes and other items of use were collected for four days after which they were distributed amongst the landslide today. Speaking on the occasion, the Patron Dr. Romesh Kumar Gupta apprised all that the Aim of the event was to provide some relief to the Poor migrants of Pancheri landslide in which the victims of Saddal area residing in Sui village could bear with the approaching chill of December and January. He further added that this is also a campaign to inculcate habit of helping the poor and needy amongst the youth of our college in particular and country in general

He was of the view that these activities have lessons for life and inculcate a felling of helping and serving nation especially by the Youth. Dr. Pankaj Sharma, Prof. Gurpreet Kour, Mr. Baljeet Singh and Miss Rishika Sharma also presented their views with relation to adopting volunteerism and sense of charity as one of the important part

Early in the morning today the Principal of the College, along with Dr. Pankaj Sharma, some other staff members flagged off the contingent of the NSS Pos and the NSS volunteers with the articles of the charity to the village Sui in the college bus. Almost 60 volunteers and two Pos. Dr. Gurpreet Kour and Prof. Sanjeet Singh in presence of the Sarpanch of Sui

ed the village where approximately 150 victims including male, female and children welcomed the volunteers and POs with open eyes and empty hands, but with a hope that they will get some relief from winters.

On reaching the place the volunteers segregated clothes according to need, gender and age. They displayed them on the counters, where all the victims visited and gathered clothes and blankets as per their need and choice. The contentment on the faces of victims after getting clothes was heart touching. It gave further boost to the volunteers to do such noble tasks in future also. Both the Pos talked to the victims and assured them that they would try to help the victims at their maximum in future also. The residents were very happy and content to receive the articles from the NSS Units, enabling them to really kill the chill.

The Sarpanch Mrs. Veena Kumari thanked and applauded the selfless efforts of the NSS Units and Pos of the College.
