

JMC receives 4,570 Street Lights through EESL

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Reiterating the commitment of the Jammu Municipal Corporation to provide better civic amenities to the people living in the Municipal limits, Commissioner Jammu Municipal Corporation Dr. Devansh Yadav on Thursday said that the Corporation has initiated various initiatives in this regard. During inspection at the Energy Efficiency Services Limited (EESL) store, the Commissioner highlighted that JMC is actively working on enhancing the city's street-lighting infrastructure, a vital aspect of urban development.

As part of this ongoing initiative, Dr. Yadav said that JMC Commissioner Dr. Devansh Yadav inspecting EESL store.

JMC has received 4,570 streetlights through the Energy Efficiency Services Limited (EESL). He emphasized that this significant addition to the city's lighting infrastructure will improve both the safety and illumination across the city of temples. To expedite the installation and repair of these lights, the Commissioner said that EESL has enhanced its workforce and operational teams, ensuring that the process moves forward swiftly and efficiently.

Speaking about the reactivation of the EESL initiative, the Commissioner said that people could approach JMC with any concerns or issues related to street lighting. He assured the public that JMC would strive to resolve these issues in a time-bound manner, underlining the importance of efficient service delivery. Instructing the concerned to expedite shifting of phase wire system to all remaining unconnected streetlights, the Commissioner said that the step is aimed at guaranteeing seamless functionality of the lights, further ensuring consistent lighting throughout the city. He said the move would go a long way in enhancing the safety of residents and to improve the overall urban environment.

Induction training for SI trainees concludes

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A spectacular valedictory function was held on Thursday at Excise and Taxation Training Institute, Nagrota to mark end of one month Induction training for Sub inspectors (Finance Department, UT of Jammu and Kashmir).

A batch of 47 Sub inspectors (Finance Department, UT of Jammu and Kashmir) comprising 39 males and 08 females from different educational backgrounds passed out successfully after the completion of one month induction training programme. The parade was reviewed by the chief guest on the occasion, Excise Commissioner, UT of Jammu and Kashmir Subash Chibber.

The occasion was also graced by the Additional Commissioner (Administration & Enforcement), State Taxes

Department, Namrita Dogra.

In the welcome address, Principal Training Institute, Renu Bhasin gave a detailed overview of the one month long induction training programme where trainees were well trained for taking up any task and challenges in their professional journey. This was followed by investiture ceremony marking a moment of pride and honour as the badges of ranks are presented to them and there is an official induction of the recruits. It was further followed by the award distribution ceremony where the trainees who have excelled in different spheres such as academics, physical test, overall performance, sports and cultural activities were appreciated and awarded. Speaking on the occasion, the Excise Commissioner congratulated all the trainees and the award winners for their hard work and overwhelming performance during their training at the training institute, Nagrota and appreciated their impeccable turnout and drill movements during the parade. In his address, he stressed upon the importance of discipline, decision making and positive approach in their professional as well as personal life.

Also, the trainees were addressed by the Additional Commissioner (Administration & Enforcement), State Taxes Department Namrita Dogra who stressed upon the sincere working and encouraged them to work with passion and contribute in the nation building.

Also, present on the occasion were Deputy Excise Commissioner (Distilleries), Deputy Excise Commissioner (Accounts) and Excise and Taxation Officers of the department.
