Col Mahan leads door-to-door campaign to bolster BJP membership drive

Col. Mahan Singh (Retd.), Chairman DDC Kathua during the campaign.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
BASOHLI: The ongoing BJP membership drive in Basohli Assembly Constituency gained momentum as Col. Mahan Singh (Retd.), Chairman DDC Kathua, spearheaded a door-to-door campaign in Basohli Rural and Plakh Panchayats. The campaign witnessed enthusiastic participation from BJP Karyakartas and supporters, who were encouraged to intensify their efforts to achieve the targets set by the party.

Col. Mahan Singh was accompanied by prominent leaders, including Yubkaran Singh, Jasbir Singh, Gurmeet Kumar, Sardar Singh, Kuldeep Singh, and Vijay Dev Singh Billawaria, among others. Together, they visited various mohallas, bastis, and key localities, engaging with residents and rallying support for the BJP's membership initiative.

Addressing party workers, Col. Mahan Singh emphasized the significance of expanding BJP's grassroots presence. He appealed to Karyakartas to motivate as many residents as possible to join the party, highlighting the BJP's stature as the world's largest political organization.

"The BJP membership drive is not just about numbers; it is about strengthening the vision of a progressive India. I urge all party workers to work tirelessly to ensure the drive's success in Basohli," Col. Mahan Singh stated. The campaign has generated a positive response from the public, with an increasing number of residents expressing their willingness to join the saffron party. The enthusiasm among party workers and supporters signals a robust push toward reinforcing BJP's organizational base in the region.

KVK Reasi educates students on Nano kitchen gardening

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
REASI: Krishi Vigyan Kendra (KVK), Reasi under the administrative control of Directorate of Extension, Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences and Technology of Jammu (SKUAST-J) educated students on nano kitchen gardening here at KVK Reasi campus. KVK Reasi is working under the dynamic stewardship of Vice Chancellor, Prof. BN Tripathi and able guidance of Director Extension (DE), Prof. Amrith Vaid of SKUAST-J. Chief Scientist & Head of KVK, Reasi, Dr. Banarsi Lal said that Nano kitchen garden is a unique method for the production of various types of fresh organic vegetables in a specified small unit. He further said that the nano kitchen garden technology has been demonstrated at KVK, Reasi campus and people can avail benefits by establishing such units in their premises. He further said that nano kitchen garden technology is a very simple, labour and water saving technology to produce the fresh organic vegetables without the use of pesticides and fertilizers. He narrated that the demand of organic, safe and high quality vegetables is increasing day-by-day and through this technology one can produce the number of quality organic vegetables consistently throughout the year from the small unit. He added that organic vegetables are beneficial for health and through this technology, plants get the nutrients in a uniform way and thus give outstanding results.

He narrated that the nano kitchen garden technology solves number of technologies such as lack of space, water and even time. He said that this technology yields healthy, safe, fresh and high quality vegetables due to a variety of factors. Students took keen interest in the technology demonstrated by KVK.

GDC Chenani organizes Eco-Trek from Karlah to Goouri Kund

Students and faculty members during the trek.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
CHENANI: Government Degree College (GDC) Chenani under the able guidance of Principal Prof. (Dr.) Rajesh Kumar Gupta organized an Eco-Trek spanning from Karlah to the picturesque Gouri Kund in collaboration with the Wildlife Department. The event aimed to raise awareness about environmental conservation, sustainable practices and provide students with hands-on learning experiences in the lap of nature. The Eco-trek saw enthusiastic participation from the students, NSS volunteers, college faculty and the wildlife department officials. The journey covered a diverse range of flora and fauna of the region. From lush green forests to serene mountain trails, the trek served as a living classroom where participants could observe and learn about the importance of preserving fragile natural resources. Vijay Kumar, Wildlife Warden Jammu Division delivered an inspiring keynote address at the inaugural of the trek. He emphasized the critical role of students in conserving nature and elaborated on the significance of maintaining a balanced ecosystem. His insights resonate deeply with the participants, setting the tone for a meaningful and educational trek.

Prof. Rajan Bharti (HOD Geography), Dr Preeti Sharma, Dr. Siddhant Bhardwaj and Vanshika played a pivotal role in ensuring the trek's success. Their expertise in navigating challenging terrain and sharing in-depth knowledge about the local flora and fauna enriched the experience. They along with the officials of the wildlife department conducted interactive sessions on wildlife protection, the man-environment relationship and pointed out burning issues related to climate change and its impact on the ecology.
