STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: JK Public School (JKPS) Kunjwani, on Tuesday hosted a spectacular Christmas assembly that beautifully encapsulated the festive spirit of love, joy, and unity. The well-curated program engaged the audience with an array of performances that brought the Christmas story to life.

The dignitaries present on the occasion were Director, JK Educational Society, Shashi Choudhary Principal JK Public School, Rajesh Rathore, Vice Principal Roopinder Kaur, School

Coordinator Inderjeet Kaur.
Coordinators Primary Wing
Anju Raj and Toddlers World
Shivangani Pandotra and Academic Coordinator
Parvinder Kour.

The assembly began with a solemn prayer, invoking blessings of peace and harmony. The vibrant anchors set a lively tone for the event with their eloquent compering, guiding the audience seamlessly through the program.

The event commenced with a serene and heartfelt prayer, invoking blessings of peace and goodwill.

The school choir then took the audience on a melodic journey with their enchanting rendition of classic Christmas carols, their harmonious voices created a symphony of warmth and festivity.

Following this, Harasees a student of VIII Maple shared an inspiring thought, emphasizing the deeper meaning of Christmas-kindness, compassion, and togetherness.

The celebrations reached their crescendo with a vibrant and energetic dance performance by students dressed as Santa Claus and his merry elves. Their spirited choreography and exuberant expressions infused the atmosphere with inexplicable joy, drawing thunderous applause from the spectators. Adding to the literary charm of the event, a student of Class VIII recited a heartfelt Poem, which beautifully portrayed the magic and hope of Christmas.

The youngest luminaries of JKPS graced the stage with an enchanting Toddler's Dance, radiating pure joy and innocence. Their delightful performance filled the atmosphere with boundless laughter, unbridled cheer, and a magical charm that captivated every heart.

The Principal, Rajesh Rathore, in his address, eloquently articulated the true essence of Christmas that is compassion, generosity, and the spirit of giving. He encouraged everyone to embody these ideals and to contribute to build a harmonious and inclusive society.

As the assembly neared its conclusion, the arrival of Santa Claus created a moment of pure enchantment. Amidst rapturous cheers, he distributed gifts and sweets, leaving the children awestruck and brimming with excitement.

The event concluded on a patriotic note with the National Anthem, leaving everyone with a sense of pride and festive warmth.
