■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Deputy Chief Minister, Surinder Kumar Choudhary, on Thursday conducted surprise inspection of Government Hospital at Chauki Chaura in Akhnoor Tehsil.

He took stock of the facilities being provided to the patients, besides enquiring about the strength of doctors and para-medical staff deployed there.

While interacting with the staff, the Deputy Chief Minister said the present government has already passed Dy CM Surinder Kumar Choudhary during visit to Government Hospital at Chauki Chaura.

the instructions that people should not face any inconvenience with respect to the public services especially the healthcare facilities. He said the government is committed to ensure speedy and hassle free deliverance of public services to the people.

"Patients should not face any inconvenience while availing the facilities meant for them as health is one of the main priority sectors of the Government," he added.

Choudhary also directed the hospital authorities to ensure that the patients are provided with quality healthcare facilities. He said that it should be ensured that benefits of health related policies are provided to them without any fail.

Sarveshwar Smiles Foundation launches food processing awareness programme

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SAMBA: Sarveshwar Smiles Foundation, a Section 8 company based in Jammu (J&K), in collaboration with KVK Samba, proudly launched the Food Processing Awareness Programme at Chak Sadda, a remote village located at the border of Samba.

A live demonstration in preparing 'Pickles' and 'Relish' by Dr. Neeraj, Chief Scientist (Horticulture) KVK, Samba was widely cherished by woman folk participants. This initiative is part of the Foundation's ongoing efforts to empower rural communities through skill development and awareness programs. The event also recognized the tremendous achievements of 30 women who completed a transformative 45-day stitching and tailoring training at Chak Sadda, one of the Foundation's satellite centers. This center, inaugurated by the Foundation's beloved patron, the late Suraj Parkash Gupta, fondly known as 'Papa Je,' in July 2024, continues to honor his vision despite his untimely passing. His enduring legacy of uplifting the community through skill-building and creating opportunities for women at the grassroots level is being carried forward by the Foundation.

Foundation members along with participant women.

Dr. Rakesh Gupta, Project Director of SSF highlighted the transformative vision of Pooja Gupta and Navnidhi Sharma, in empowering rural women that has shaped the foundation's core mission, which focuses on promoting sustainable livelihoods, enhancing financial literacy, and fostering organic farming practices. Dr. Gupta spoke of how the Foundation's initiatives are not just about providing skills but also about creating avenues for women to take charge of their economic futures, driving local growth, and contributing to broader economic empowerment. Mahadeep Singh Jamwal, Director of Corporate Affairs at Sarveshwar Group and a member of Sarveshwar Smiles Foundation, acknowledged the significant financial, motivational, and logistical support provided by Rohit Gupta, Chairman of Sarveshwar Group.

Jamwal emphasized Gupta's unwavering commitment to social activities aimed at women's empowerment, including the support for the education of girls, particularly those from financially disadvantaged backgrounds. He further elaborated that while training and skill development are essential, they must lead to sustainable financial health and create opportunities that impact not only the women but also the communities around them.

The event also featured an insightful live demonstration by Dr. Sanjay Khajuria, Chief Scientist and Head at KVK Samba, who showcased the immense potential of drone farming to enhance agricultural productivity. The demonstration highlighted how drone technology can be utilized by farmers to improve crop management and increase efficiency, offering farmers innovative tools to optimize their farming practices. Dr. Gaytri, Head of Organics at Sarveshwar Group, delivered an informative address on the significance of organic farming for both environmental sustainability and public health. She emphasized the critical role of organic practices in preserving the ecosystem, improving soil health, and providing consumers with healthier food options. The event concluded with remarks from local community representatives, who expressed their gratitude for the impactful work being done by Sarveshwar Smiles Foundation. Koushal, Field Coordinator of Sarveshwar Smiles Foundation, closed the program by thanking all the dignitaries, participants, and volunteers for their continued support and dedication to empowering the local community.

Col Mahan inaugurates development projects in Basohli, highlights PM Modi's vision for progress

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

BASOHLI: In a significant stride towards enhancing infrastructure and promoting tourism in Basohli, Col Mahan Singh (Retd.), Chairman of the District Development Council (DDC), inaugurated two major development projects today. The initiatives reflect the commitment of the administration to realizing Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of holistic and inclusive development for Jammu and Kashmir. Col Mahan Singh was joined by MLA Basohli, Th. Darshan Kumar, during the ceremonies.

The first project involved the commencement of blacktopping of 3 kilometers of key roads under the Basohli Municipal Council, including the Bus Stand and the Sub-District Complex. This ₹65 lakh project, executed under the C&T Revised Saving Plan, aims to improve connectivity and provide smoother commutes for residents and visitors. The initiative is a step forward in addressing urban infrastructure challenges and aligns with the government's broader agenda of modernizing public facilities.

In a boost to the region's tourism sector, Col Mahan Singh also inaugurated a state-of-the-art Tourism Hut near the Adventure Water Sports Complex. Constructed at an estimated cost of Rs 80 lakh, the facility will feature four well-equipped guest rooms and allied amenities. This project is expected to attract more tourists, offering them quality accommodation and enhancing their experience in the picturesque region of Basohli.

During the visit, Col Mahan Singh, accompanied by the Executive Engineer of the Public Works Department (PWD), conducted an inspection of a 2.5-kilometer stretch from Reni Chowk to Drabar GPS via Padha Mohalla. Recognizing the public demand for better connectivity, he directed the preparation of a Detailed Project Report (DPR) for the proposed road improvement project.

Speaking on the occasion, Col Mahan Singh emphasized the transformative impact of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's developmental policies, which have brought renewed focus on infrastructure and tourism in Jammu and Kashmir. He reiterated his commitment to

Pvt Computer shop sealed for suspicious activities

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAJOURI: Deputy Commissioner Rajouri Abhishek Sharma conducted a surprise inspection, here at the ARTO (Assistant Regional Transport Officer) office.

During the inspection, some individuals were found inside official rooms, raising serious questions about unauthorized access to sensitive areas. Additionally, a nearby computer shop was sealed after documents belonging to the ARTO office were recovered within its premises.

Acting swiftly, the Deputy Commissioner ordered instant initiation of disciplinary proceedings and detailed inquiry into the matter. The inquiry aims to identify lapses, if any, on the part of the office staff and the involvement of external parties in handling official documents.

"The administration is committed to ensuring that public offices maintain the highest standards of integrity and accountability. Any violation of these principles will not be tolerated, and strict action will be taken against those found guilty," said the DC.

The Deputy Commissioner also emphasized the need for stricter protocols to prevent unauthorized access to government offices and documents in the future. He said details regarding the inquiry and any subsequent actions will be shared with the public once the investigation is complete.
