IIT-Jammu to host Smart India Hackathon grand finale

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: IIT-Jammu will host the grand finale of the Smart India Hackathon, a nationwide initiative that brings together the brightest young minds for developing innovative solutions to critical issues. This year, 30 teams will compete in the grand finale to address vital cybersecurity challenges posed by the National Critical Information Infrastructure Protection Center (NCIIPC), an IIT-Jammu spokesperson said.

The seventh edition of the Smart India Hackathon (Software Edition), organised by the Union Ministry of Education, will commence on December 11 across 51 nodal centres nationwide, with IIT-Jammu playing a prominent role as one of the hosts, he added. The event will be inaugurated virtually by Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan. The teams will be working on problem statements provided by various ministries, departments and industries, or they can propose their own ideas under the student innovation category across 17 diverse themes, he said. In addition to hosting the grand finale, IIT-Jammu students have also earned recognition by representing the institute in various Smart India Hackathon centres across India. Three teams from IIT-Jammu have been selected to compete in different categories, he added. These teams are working tirelessly on their innovative projects, which have the potential to significantly impact their respective fields, the official said. The hackathon serves as a vital platform for nurturing the next generation of engineers, innovators and entrepreneurs who will lead India into a new era of technological advancement, he said. The Smart India Hackathon has consistently proven to be a gamechanger, fostering collaboration between students, government agencies, and industry experts, according to the official.

Sat reiterates party's dedication in promoting it's policies & ideology at grassroots level

JKBJP President Sat Sharma honouring party leader Zorawar Singh Jamwal.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: J&K Bharatiya Janta Party President Sat Sharma on Saturday reiterated party's dedication in promoting it's policies, vision and ideology at grass root level. "Our mission is to make BJP's ideals known to every citizen. This is not just about numbers but about strengthening the nation through collective growth, unity and prosperity," said Sat Sharma while felicitating party leader Zorawar Singh Jamwal during a special ceremony function organized at party headquarters here for his remarkable contribution in enrolling more than 2200 persons especially youth as primary members of the party in less than a week. While addressing the party leaders and workers, Sat Sharma described the occasion as exceptional contribution to the party's membership drive and expressed his gratitude and admiration for Zorawar Singh Jamwal and acknowledged his tireless efforts in expanding the party base. "Zorawar has set a remarkable example of dedication and hardwork. His relentless efforts including personally reaching out to the households and motivating people to join BJP, have played a pivotal role in achieving this milestone," highlighted Sat Sharma.

He further emphasized that such initiatives were not just about increasing membership but also about spreading the party's vision and ideology across communities. Sat said "This number will continue to grow in the coming days. We are committed in bringing more people into party fold ensuring that values and policies of the party reach every nook and corner of J&K. Sharma highlighted that Zorawar Singh Jamwal's approach of motivating individuals through personal interaction and engagement has helped build trust and enthusiasm among the masses. In his address, BJP leader Zorawar Singh Jamwal emphasized that the membership drive will remain ongoing with a focus on involving more individuals from diverse section of society.
