

Students of GMS Rattanpur shine at Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Students of Government Middle School, Rattanpur, Zone Marh, under the guidance of Incharge Anjna Khajuria, showcased an impressive performance at the culmination ceremony of the Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav organised by Samagra Shiksha.

The young participants enthralled the audience with a vibrant Punjabi dance presentation, earning appreciation and accolades for their talent and hard work.

Their remarkable performance brought laurels to the institution, and the students were honoured with medals and certificates by Bhawani Rakwal, State

Project Director (SPD), Samagra Shiksha.

The event was graced by several distinguished digni-taries, including Bhawani Rakwal, State Project Director; Chanchal Kumar Sharma, Deputy Director

Planning; Dr. Naseem Javaid Chowdhary, Director School Education Jammu; and Dr. Archana Parihar, Programme Coordinator, along with officers and officials from various districts.

The school fraternity extended heartfelt gratitude to Samagra Shiksha and all dignitaries for providing a valuable platform that encouraged students to express their cultural and linguistic talents with pride and confidence.

Speaker visits Charar-e-Sharief constituency, reviews development

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

CHARAR-E-SHARIEF: Speaker, Jammu and Kashmir Legislative Assembly and MLA Charar-e-Sharief, Abdul Rahim Rather, on Thursday conducted an extensive tour of his constituency to review ongoing developmental works besides inaugurating key healthcare facilities.

During the visit, the Speaker inaugurated newly established Dental and Digital X-Ray units at PHC Hayatpora, marking a significant enhancement in healthcare services available to the local residents.

Rahim Rather, later, visited the Sub-District Hospital (SDH) Nagam, where he interacted with the doctors, paramedical staff and the public.

Responding to their grievances and developmental concerns, the Speaker assured them that the government is fully committed towards strengthening the healthcare infrastructure and addressing the public needs on priority. As part of the tour, the Speaker also inspected the PHC Sursyaar, where he inaugurated a digital X-ray plant.

He, later, addressed a public darbar in Sursyaar where he assures the residents that PHC Sursyaar will soon function 24×7, providing round-the-clock patient care and improved medical services.

Rahim Rather also visited the PHC Kremshore where he interacted with the doctors, paramedical staff and the public.

The residents of the area expressed hope that the visit of the Speaker would expedite long-pending development works across the region.

During the constituency tour, the Speaker was accompanied by Director Health Services Kashmir, Deputy Director Health, CMO Budgam, SDMs of Chadoora and Khansahib besides BMOs of Chadoora, Khansahib along with other senior officials.
