Congress reaffirms unwavering commitment to Dalit empowerment: Tara Chand

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: The Working President of the Jammu and Kashmir Pradesh Congress Committee and former Deputy Chief Minister, Tara Chand, on Sunday addressed a meeting of the All India Congress Committee, which was attended by AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge, Rahul Gandhi, and prominent representatives, thinkers, and leaders from the Dalit community across the country.

Addressing the gathering, Tara Chand emphasized that the Indian National Congress has always remained at the forefront in safeguarding the rights, dignity, and holistic development of the Dalit community. He recalled the historic role of the Congress Party in introducing landmark constitutional safeguards, progressive social justice measures, and welfare schemes aimed at the upliftment and empowerment of Dalits in India.

Tara Chand stated that the bond between the Congress Party and the Dalit community is deep-rooted, time-tested, and based on mutual trust and respect. He noted that the Dalit community has consistently stood shoulder to shoulder with the Congress Party during every crucial phase of the nation's democratic and political journey.

Appealing to the party leadership, particularly Rahul Gandhi, Tara Chand urged that adequate, meaningful, and effective representation of Dalits be ensured within the party organization at all levels, especially at the block, district, and grassroots levels.

He stressed that strengthening Dalit leadership within the Congress structure is essential for promoting inclusive politics and reinforcing the principles of social justice.

He further reiterated that the Dalit community remains a steadfast pillar of support for the Congress Party and will continue to stand united with it in its ongoing struggle for equality, justice, and the protection of constitutional values.

JBM pays tributes to Sanjay Gandhi on birth anniversary

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Jammu Province Bachao Manch (JBM) on Friday paid rich tributes to Late Sanjay Gandhi on his birth anniversary, remembering him as a visionary leader who dreamed of a developed, modern and self-reliant India free from hunger, unemployment and poverty.

The commemorative programme was organised under the leadership of JBM Chairman, former legislator and senior advocate Ashok Sharma. Speakers recalled the progressive ideas, policies and reform-oriented proposals envisioned by Sanjay Gandhi, stating that many of his thoughts were far ahead of his time and aimed at transforming the socio-economic fabric of the country.

Addressing the gathering, Ashok Sharma said that Late Sanjay Gandhi possessed a clear, bold and dynamic vision for national development and was deeply committed to empowering the common man. He said Sanjay Gandhi strongly believed in rapid industrialisation, employment generation and administrative reforms to put India on the path of sustained growth and prosperity.

Senior member and Chief Spokesperson of JBM, Dr Kuldeep Sharma, who had remained closely associated with Sanjay Gandhi, recalled his strong emphasis on population control. He said Sanjay Gandhi firmly believed that balanced population growth was essential for national prosperity, economic stability and an improved quality of life. "He was convinced that population management was the key to reducing poverty and ensuring equitable distribution of resources," Dr Sharma said.

Dr Sharma further highlighted that Sanjay Gandhi envisioned a fully modernised India with world-class infrastructure and basic amenities accessible to all sections of society. He noted that the late leader consistently advocated innovative ideas to ensure development reached the masses rather than remaining confined to a privileged few.

Speakers also recalled Sanjay Gandhi's pivotal role in introducing the Maruti car project in India. They said his objective was to provide affordable transportation so that even economically weaker sections could aspire to own a car, thereby improving mobility and quality of life.

The programme concluded with members reaffirming their resolve to uphold and propagate the developmental ideals of Late Sanjay Gandhi and to continue working for the welfare and progress of the nation in the spirit of his vision.

Others who spoke on the occasion included Satish Ponchi, Ashwani Sharma, Haji Shak Mohd, Parveen Nagar, Vinay Katal, Omrav Singh, Priyanka Sharma, Jaspal Singh, Kuldeep Chohan, Neelam Chowdhury, Devinder Singh, Vijay Atri, Sunny Kumar, Jaipal and Ashwani Kumar.

Sub Insp critical after attack by goons with sharp edged weapons, manhunt launched

Three to four goons came in Thar, fled away after attack

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A shocking incident of attack on a police officer was reported on Sunday evening at around 8:30 PM at Gurrath Morh in the Bakshi Nagar area of Jammu.
