JKRTC organises grand Investors Meet on monetization of assets

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Jammu & Kashmir Road Transport Corporation (JKRTC) organized grand Investors Meet in Jammu here on Monday to showcase its extensive asset portfolio and explore new avenues for their monetization under infrastructure modernization and revenue-augmentation initiatives of the agency. Secretary Transport, Avny Lavasa; Managing Director, JKRTC, Abdul Rashid War; senior officers of Transport department and JKRTC, besides a diverse group of participants including prominent investors, infrastructure developers, representatives from financial institutions, real-estate experts and industry leaders were present on the occasion. The meet served as a dynamic platform for JKRTC to present wide range of assets that hold significant potential for commercial development, public-utility enhancement, and long-term investment before the investors and participants and collaborate with JKRTC to unlock the value of its under-utilized assets. Addressing the participants, the Secretary Transport said that the Investors Meet is strategically important for the corporation to make it economically viable. She noted that JKRTC possesses a wide portfolio of strategically located assets at prominent and commercially viable locations that can be leveraged through PPP models, commercial development, and long-term leasing arrangements. In his address, MD JKRTC, Abdul Rashid War presented a brief outline about the basic objective of this grand Investors Meet. He underlined the Corporation's ongoing transformation efforts, emphasizing that asset monetization will not only strengthen JKRTC's operational sustainability but also support the broader vision of economic growth and improved public transport services and create new revenue streams. "Today's Investor Meet is a decisive step towards bringing private-sector expertise and investment into initiatives that will not only benefit JKRTC but also boost economic activity, employment, and connectivity across Jammu & Kashmir," the MD said.

During the meet, the Transactional Advisor of JKRTC gave a detailed presentation showcasing key land parcels across J&K that can be monetized for infrastructure modernization and revenue-augmentation of JKRTC.

Investors were briefed on potential models such as public-private partnerships, lease-based development, joint ventures, and revenue-sharing frameworks, ensuring mutually beneficial opportunities. Participants also engaged in an interactive session to seek clarifications on policy frameworks and future expansion plans.

The meet witnessed an encouraging response, with several investors expressing keen interest in collaborating with JKRTC to unlock the value of its under-utilized assets.

Zimbabwe's Christopher Mpofu named Brand Ambassador for All India 16th Gufran Memorial T20 Cricket C'Ship 2026

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

DODA: In a major boost to one of the region's most celebrated cricket tournaments, the Young Star Cricket Club Doda has appointed Zimbabwe international fast bowler Christopher Mpofu as the Brand Ambassador for the upcoming All India 16th Gufran Memorial T20 Cricket Championship 2026.

The Gufran Memorial T20 Championship, known for attracting top talent from across India, is set to gain even greater prominence with the involvement of Mpofu, a seasoned international cricketer who has taken 155 wickets for Zimbabwe. Over his illustrious career, he featured in 84 ODIs, 32 T20Is, and 15 Test matches, earning a reputation as one of Zimbabwe's leading pacers. Though he retired from international cricket in 2020, Mpofu continues to compete in various professional cricket leagues worldwide. The announcement came during a meeting held in Doda today, under the leadership of Patron YSCC Doda Manzoor Ahmed Bhatt. The meeting saw the participation of Chairman Naseer Ahmed Khora, Advisor Zaheer Abbas Hashmi, along with Kesar Shenali, Rajid Wani, Javed Thakur, Raja Batt, Waseem Raja Butt, Irfan Butt, Nehaan Butt, Tanzeel Malik, Javed Butt, Ilyas Butt, Iqbal Butt, Burhan Sheikh, Abid Mughal, Irfan Khanji, and several other club members and supporters.

During the session, the club unanimously agreed on Mpofu's appointment, terming it a significant step toward elevating the championship's stature and inspiring young cricketers in the region.

graced the occasion as Chief Guest and Keynote Speaker. In his address, he traced the development of constitutional governance in J&K and emphasised the foundational role of fundamental rights, fundamental duties and judicial review in safeguarding the rule of law. He urged students to embody constitutional values in personal, social and professional spheres to build a responsible citizenry.

The programme was organised under the patronage of Prof. Sanjeev Jain, Vice Chancellor, CUJ. The event began with a formal welcome and the lighting of the ceremonial lamp. Prof. Santap Sanhari Misra, Head of the Department, delivered the welcome address, underscoring Constitution Day as a reminder of the Preamble's spirit of justice, liberty, equality and fraternity.

Dr. Jai Bhawani Singh

(Department of Public Policy and Public Administration & CT-SD, 4th NCC BN, Jammu) led participants-including students, research scholars, faculty and NCC cadets-in the collective reading of the Preamble, reaffirming their commitment to constitutional values.

Prof. Asvini Kumar Nanda, Dean, reflected on the relevance of the Constitution amid socio-economic transitions in J&K and highlighted the vital role of universities in cultivating constitutionally aware citizens.

In his Presidential Address, Prof. Yashwant Singh, Registrar, emphasised the importance of constitutional literacy for all stakeholders in higher education, noting that a deep understanding of rights, duties and institutional checks is essential for good governance. He praised the enthusiastic participation of students and NCC cadets, encouraging them to translate constitutional principles into everyday conduct.

A memento was presented to Justice (Retd.) Mohan Lal Manhas, followed by a vote of thanks and the National Anthem.

JU organizes online session to mark International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Centre for Women's Studies, University of Jammu, in collaboration with the Centre for Women Development Studies, New Delhi, organised an online session to commemorate the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women and the UN's 2025 theme, "Unite to End Digital Violence against All Women and Girls." The event formed part of the 16 Days of Activism being jointly observed by 16 universities across India.

resource person for the session. She delivered an in-depth presentation titled "Cyber Crimes against Women and Children: Issues, Challenges and Legal Safeguards." Prof. Nayyar highlighted the rapidly evolving digital landscape and the rise of cyber threats such as online harassment, cyberstalking, identity theft, misuse of social media, and financial fraud. She stressed that women and children remain especially vulnerable due to increased digital exposure, limited awareness, and gaps in cyber safety education. Prof. Nayyar also elaborated on legal protections available under the Information Technology Act, Indian Penal Code, and other criminal laws, as well as various government initiatives aimed at preventing cybercrimes and supporting victims. She provided practical guidance on preventive measures, responsible digital behaviour, and the crucial roles of parents, educators, and institutions in ensuring online safety. Her session was well received for its relevance, clarity, and strong emphasis on empowering individuals to navigate digital spaces safely. Earlier, Dr. Saranjit Kaur, faculty member at the Centre for Women's Studies, welcomed participants and expressed gratitude to the Centre for Women's Development Studies, New Delhi, and Prof. Manimekalai for initiating and supporting the programme.

She later shared insights from her own research, including case studies on technology-enabled domestic violence in Jammu district through platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, and WhatsApp.

Dr. Saranjit Kaur coordinated and conducted the session and delivered the vote of thanks.
