J&K Minority Morcha to observe 'Veer Bal Diwas' on Dec 26

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A meeting of the BJP Minority Morcha Jammu and Kashmir was held today under the chairmanship of its President, Ranjodh Singh Nalwa, to review ongoing organisational programmes and to discuss preparations for a special upcoming event.

The meeting focused on planning the Veer Bal Diwas to commemorate the martyrdom of the four Sahibzadas, the sons of Guru Gobind Singh Ji.

Addressing the meeting, Ranjodh Singh Nalwa said that the Minority Morcha has been consistently working to promote social harmony, cultural awareness and respect for the sacrifices made by great martyrs of the nation.

He informed that, as in the previous two years, the Morcha will organise the Bal Diwas programme on December 26 at Gurudwara Bahu Fort, Jammu, from 11:00 AM to 1:30 PM.

"The supreme sacrifice of the four Sahibzadas at such a young age is a shining example of courage, faith and devotion to righteousness. Remembering their martyrdom is not only a religious duty but also a moral responsibility for society," Nalwa said while addressing the participants.

He added that such programmes help inspire the younger generation with the values of bravery, sacrifice and commitment to truth.

Nalwa further informed that Shabad Kirtan will be organised during the programme to pay tributes to the Sahibzadas. Floral tributes (Shradhanjali) will be offered by BJP leaders and other participants as a mark of respect and reverence. He said that the event would be organised with full devotion and discipline, keeping in view the sanctity of the occasion.

Appealing to the people, Ranjodh Singh Nalwa urged all sections of society to participate in large numbers.

"I appeal to all people, irrespective of caste, creed or religion, to join this programme and pay homage to the Sahibzadas, whose sacrifice is a source of inspiration for the entire nation," he said.

Several office bearers and members of the J&K Minority Morcha attended the meeting and assured full cooperation to make the programme a success.

Registration for allied, healthcare professionals begins in J&K

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The National Commission for Allied and Healthcare Professions (NCAHP) is all set to commence the registration process for Allied and Healthcare Professionals in the Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir.

According to a communication issued here on Saturday by the Chairperson, State Allied and Healthcare Council J&K, the online registration portal, mandated under the NCAHP Act, 2021, aims to provide seamless and efficient registration for professionals and institutions.

Eligible professionals are advised to prepare their documents and details as the portal is expected to go live soon. The draft regulations governing the registration are available on the Commission's website and are nearing finalization.

Further updates on the launch date and registration procedure will be communicated in due course. The professionals can contact the State Allied and Healthcare Council, J&K at Jammu and Srinagar for queries.

"Jashn-e-Bachpan": Ankur Play School, BSF Primary School celebrate Annual Day

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A vibrant display of colours, enthusiasm, and youthful energy filled the Satish Auditorium at the BSF Campus, Paloura, as Ankur Play School and BSF Primary School jointly celebrated their Annual Day with great zeal, and enthusiasm. The programme, themed "Jashn-e-Bachpan" (Celebration of Childhood), beautifully showcased the talent, creativity, and confidence of young learners and students. The distinguished function was graced by Shashank Anand, IPS, Inspector General, BSF Jammu Frontier and Chairman of the School, as the Chief Guest. Senior BSF officers, parents, and school staff were also present in large number.

The programme commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, followed by a devotional Ganesh Vandana presented by the students, which created a serene and auspicious atmosphere.

The school Headmistress, Sonia Gupta, presented the Annual Report of the school highlighting the academic achievements, co-curricular activities, and new initiatives undertaken by the school during the academic session. She emphasized the institution's commitment to the holistic development of children.

A series of colourful cultural performances, including dances, skits, and theme-based programmes, captivated the audience. The students' confident stage presence, expressive performances, and discipline were highly appreciated.

In his address, the Chief Guest lauded the efforts of the school management and teachers, stating that such programmes play a vital role in nurturing confidence, values, creativity, and discipline among children.

He encouraged the students to move forward with hard work, honesty, and strong moral values.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks. The "Jashn-e-Bachpan" celebration truly emerged as a memorable festival of childhood innocence, creativity, and joyful learning.
