

Red Fort blast: Judicial custody of 7 accused extended till Jan 8

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: A Delhi court on Wednesday extended the judicial custody of seven accused in the Red Fort blast case by 15 days.

The court remanded Dr Adeel Rather; Dr Muzammil Ganaie, Dr Shaheen Saeed, Maulvi Irfan Ahmed Wagay, Jasir Bilal Wani, Anir Rashid Ali and Soyab in judicial custody for 15 more days.

Earlier, the three doctors and Wagay were sent to 12 days of judicial custody on December 12. Ali and Wani were remanded in 14 days of judicial custody on December 10. Soyab was sent to five days of judicial custody on December 19. The National Investigation Agency (NIA) produced the seven accused at the Patiala House Court amid tight security on Wednesday, upon the expiry of their previous judicial custody period. Mediapersons were barred from covering the proceedings. The seven accused were produced before Additional Sessions Judge Prashant Sharma, who remanded all of them in judicial custody till January 8.

PTI had earlier reported that the sophisticated terror module spearheaded by a group of doctors was actively scouting for a suicide bomber since last year, with Umar-un-Nabi being the alleged key planner.

Vishwa Bharati celebrates Christmas and Food Festival

Students and faculty at celebration.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Vishwa Bharati Higher Secondary School Akalpur Morh, celebrated Christmas cum food festival in its campus with great fervour and zeal. The whole school campus radiated joy and festive spirit as it hosted its annual "Christmas Celebration cum Food Festival". The event title, "Jingle and Relish" brought together students and faculty for a day of cultural vibrancy and culinary delights.

The festivities commenced with a special morning assembly where the school choir enchanted the audience with timeless carols like "Jingle Bells", "We wish you a Merry Christmas" and "Silent Night". The arrival of Santa Claus, accompanied by the rhythmic beats of drums, sent a wave of excitement through the crowd.

Following cultural performances the school ground transitioned into a bustling food hub. The "Gourmet Corner" featured a diverse array of stalls managed by students and staff, offering a mix of traditional dogra cuisine, global flavours, and other festive treats.

An Inter-house Christmas tree decoration competition was also organized in which Sundram House stood first and won first prize for their creativity.

Addressing the audience, school Principal Annapurna Koul expressed pride in the students' enthusiasm and asserted that events like this foster a sense of community and cultural appreciation among our youth.

J&K- Ladakh HC dismisses Mehbooba's PIL on transfer of prisoners from outside jails to UT

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: The High Court of Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh has dismissed a PIL filed by PDP president Mehbooba Mufti seeking transfer of prisoners from outside jails to prisons in J&K.

A division bench of the high court, comprising Chief Justice Arun Palli and Justice Rajnesh Oswal, in a 15-page order passed on Tuesday said the petition appears to have been filed for garnering political mileage.

"It appears that the instant petition has been initiated by the petitioner for the explicit purpose of garnering political advantage and positioning herself as a crusader of justice for a particular demographic," the bench observed.

The court said it cannot remain oblivious to the violent past, which the residents of Jammu and Kashmir have passed through, because of forces hostile to the unity and integrity of the country.

"In fact, the petitioner too recognises the special circumstances of Jammu and Kashmir; when in relief part of this petition, she states that the under-trials be detained in the prisons in U.T. of Jammu and Kashmir, unless the Jail Authorities furnish reasons before this court demonstrating 'unavoidable and compelling necessity' in exceptional cases. The detailing of such exceptional cases has been conveniently ignored by the petitioner," the court said. The bench said the PIL cannot be allowed to be utilised as an instrument for advancing partisan or political agendas or transforming the court into a political platform.

"Public Interest Litigation is also not a mechanism for gaining political leverage, and the Courts cannot serve as a forum for electoral campaigns.

"While political parties possess manifold legitimate avenues to engage with the electorate, courts cannot be employed as an instrument for achieving electoral advantage," it added.

The high court said that notwithstanding the "vagueness and the ulterior motive" that prompted the petitioner to approach the government and the court, it is deemed appropriate to observe that under-trials, whose cause, the petitioner claims to have projected in this petition, are facing trials before the respective courts.

"Judicial avenues were/are available to such under-trials for the redressal of any grievance concerning their detention. "The omission on their part to avail themselves of these legal remedies is an indicative of the fact that they are not genuinely aggrieved of their retention in the prisons outside the UT of Jammu and Kashmir," the court said. It said a PIL is maintainable only on a prima facie showing of public interest.

Where such interest is in doubt or compromised by extraneous considerations, the court must decline to interfere, as preventing the abuse of legal process is, in itself, a matter of significant public interest, it added.

"In light of what has been said and discussed above, the present petition is found to be misconceived and is, accordingly, dismissed," the court said in the order.
