Bovine smuggling bids foiled;
10 bovines rescued

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Jammu (Rural) Police, while intensifying its drive against bovine smugglers under Operation Kamdhenu, foiled a bovine smuggling attempt and rescued 06 bovines from a Mahindra Bolero pickup vehicle bearing registration number JK02DN-1346 within the jurisdiction of Police Station Kanachak.

During the operation, the driver of the vehicle managed to flee from the spot upon interception; however, the vehicle involved in the offence was seized.

In this regard, a case FIR No. 178/25 under Section 223 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) and Section 11 of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (PCA) Act has been registered at Police Station Kanachak, and further investigation is underway.

It is pertinent to mention that this is the third bovine smuggling bid foiled by Jammu (Rural) Police in the Rural Zone today.

Jammu Police, under Operation Kamdhenu, continue to tighten the noose around bovine smugglers. Acting on specific information, a police team from Gharota Police Station successfully foiled an attempt to smuggle cattle in the Gharota area.

During the operation, the police rescued two cattle and arrested the accused, Saleem Ali, son of Saif Ali, resident of Kangar.

In this connection, FIR No. 110 has been registered under Section 223 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) and Section 11 of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act at Police Station Gharota. Further investigation into the matter is underway.

Police Post Pargwal during patrolling at NS Pura, a Tata mobile bearing registration No. JK20B/2758, was signalled to stop. However, the driver ignored the signal and managed to escape from the spot.

Upon thorough inspection, 02 bovines were found being transported illegally in the said vehicle. All the animals were rescued safely and the vehicle was seized.

In this regard, FIR No. 67/2025 under Section 223 BNS and Section 11 of the PCA Act has been registered at Police Station Khour. Further investigation is underway.

Doda police secures conviction in bovine smuggling case

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

DODA: Doda Police have successfully secured the conviction and punishment of an accused involved in a bovine smuggling case, reaffirming their sustained efforts to curb illegal activities in the district.
