congregation on Dec 4

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Ganotra and Degyal Brahmin Biradari will hold its Bi-Annual Congregation on Thursday, 4th December 2025, at the sacred shrine Devasathan Kharha Madana (Purnmandal). The congregation is an important spiritual and cultural event for the Biradari, observed with deep faith and devotion. According to the communiqué issued, the programme will commence with traditional rituals and Hawan, to be performed by the Biradari members to invoke divine blessings for peace, prosperity, and well-being of the community. Devotees will gather early in the morning to participate in the spiritual proceedings at the holy Devasathan. After the completion of religious ceremonies, a Bhandara (community feast) will be organized in the afternoon for all the devotees and visiting members. The management committee has made necessary arrangements to ensure smooth conduct of the event, including seating, sanitation, and other essential facilities for the participants.

The organizers have appealed to all members of the Ganotra and Degyal Brahmin Biradari, including those residing outside the region, to attend the congregation along with their families and seek the divine blessings of Bua Dati, the revered deity of the Biradari.
