vibrant and prosperous.

Describing Jammu as a symbol of communal harmony and secularism, he said all efforts must be made to strengthen the secular fabric of the region, which is pluralistic in nature. "Jammu has all along fought the forces which have been trying to create communal disharmony or promote divisiveness", he asserted. He appealed to one and all to uphold the traditional values of brotherhood and coexistence and together identify, isolate and defeat the elements who are bent upon disturbing peace and harmony in Jammu. Later, Sethi interacted with the traders of Lakhdata Bazar and listened to their issues.

Referring to the demands put forth by the traders of the area, Sethi assured that he will take up all their issues with the authorities concerned for their early redressal.

During the Langar, SHO Zaheer Manhas was also honored for their services.

Others who were present include Kartar Gupta, Amit Luthra, Rakesh Mahajan, Satpal Suri, Amit Gupta, Jain and Ankur Suri.
