DC Reasi listens to grievances of employees

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

REASI: In one of its own kind initiative and with a view to redress the grievances of the employees and expeditious disposal of their issues, Deputy Commissioner Reasi Charandeep Singh on Monday listened the grievances of the employees of District Reasi. Deputy Commissioner met with various employees as well as representatives of employee associations and gave a patient hearing to their grievances.

Deputy Commissioner also assured them that all the genuine grievances will be resolved at an earliest and matter shall also be taken up with concerned quarters at government level for grievances which require policy decisions at Government level.

Deputy Commissioner has also directed the District officers to organise similar sessions at their own level which will enhance performance and will create a good and harmonious working environment. There has been instances where the employees resort to protests etc. for even a smaller issues. This initiative will give a platform to the employees for raising issues of concern which can be resolved at the District level or in case of any direction from the higher authorities, requests shall be made to the concerned department.

Five number of deputations/employees met with the Deputy Commissioner in one hour time period where few grievances related to service book, release of arrears were resolved on spot besides the employees who requested for their transfers were assured that the same shall be considered in terms of the transfer policy during the transfer window.

Pertinent to mention here that District Administration is committed to providing a productive and conducive work environment where grievances are dealt fairly and promptly. The objective of this initiative is to facilitate a work culture where no grievances exist and also help in improving performance and productivity of the concerned employees of the District.
