

J&K in sight of big win as brilliant Samad slams ton, magical Rasool takes fifer

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Explosive middle-order batsman Abdul Samad was at his butchering best as he slammed a power-packed 68-ball century, before experienced campaigner and former skipper, Parvez Rasool captured 5 important wickets as Jammu and Kashmir is in sight of a big win against Puducherry in the Ranji Trophy Elite Group match at SSN College ground, Chennai.

As per report reaching here, earlier, resuming from an overnight score of 260/3, J&K rode on a power-packed innings of 103 runs off 73 balls by talented Abdul Samad to score 426 runs in 114.3 overs, thus gaining a vital lead.

This was Samad's second 68-ball century as he had earlier scored back to back cracking 68-ball hundred in one-session against Assam at Jammu and another brisk 63-ball century again in one-session against Jharkhand at Ranchi in 2019-20 season.

Samad was in awe-inspiring touch today, hitting the ball with fluid grace and utter-brilliance. He sent the bowlers on a leather-hunt and smashed 19 delectable boundaries and 2 massive sixes.

Earlier, opener Qamran Iqbal fell at his overnight score of 96 runs off 220 balls, studded with 13 fours and 2 sixes. Abid Mushtaq and Parvez Rasool contributed 40 and 31 runs to claimed 2 wickets.

Trailing by 83 runs, Pondicherry, in their second essay were struggling at 113/9 in 44 overs when the stumps were drawn on day-3 today, thus have just 30 runs in their kitty with one wicket in hand.

J&K bowlers, especially Parvez Rasool ripped through the rival batting line-up to plot their collapse. Sagar V Trivedi top scored with unbeaten 26 runs, while Pavan Deshpande scored 21 runs. First innings centurion, Paras Dogra contributed 16 runs to the total. For J&K, Parvez Rasool was the wrecker-in-chief, who captured 5 important wickets by conceding 29 runs in his 19 overs, while left-arm spinner Abid Mushtaq took 2 wickets by giving away 17 runs in his 12 overs. Genuine quick bowler, Umran Malik and medium pacer Anqib Nabi claimed one wicket each. With just a day's play left and Puducherry just 30 runs ahead with last wicket in hand, J&K is already in a driving seat and it will be a cakewalk rather a formality for them on the final day.

Kavinder, Rana flag-off BJYM's 'Run for Fitness'

Senior BJP leaders Kavinder Gupta and Devender Singh Rana flagging-off run for fitness.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Senior BJP leaders Kavinder Gupta and Devender Singh Rana today lauded the resilience of youth in braving the challenge of pandemic times with courage and fortitude, hoping that with situation showing the signs of improvement the physical activities can resume once again.

Flagging off Run for Fitness race, organized by Bhartiya Janata Youth Morecha here this morning, they highlighted the importance of physical activity for physical growth and mental agility.

Rana said the past two years have been real bad times, which took toll of physical activity as the people were forced to remain indoors due to restrictions. Now that life is coming to normal, the normal activities must get back on tracks with prescribed health advisories and protocols.

Rana solicited the participation of people, especially the youth in the events like this, saying that the fitness tunes the body, the only place a human being actually lives in. He also spelled out the benefits of jogging for fitness and forging spirit of camaraderie and hoped that the initiative will inspire youngsters to join such events in a big way. Running keeps people in good stead as these are the occasion to have fun and good times also, he added.

Speaking on the occasion, Kavinder Gupta exuded confidence that the Morecha will channelize the youth energies towards positive pursuits so that they can play their useful role in nation building.

Gupta said the events like this will inspire youth to inculcate the spirit of camaraderie, brotherhood and sportsmanship. "Let's imbibe the message and appreciate the importance of the fitness walks", he told the participants and wished them good times in such special events. He said watching the activity itself is an exciting experiment.

Gupta appreciated the BJYM for organizing the event, which he described as a defining moment in promoting the fitness culture.

Prominent among those present in the fitness event included Vinay Gupta, District President Jammu, Bharat Bhushan, Mandal President, Baldev Singh Baloria, Corporator, Arun Dev Singh Jamwal, Raghav Arora, Upmaniyu Sharma and others.
