process of allotment of works so that development works are not hampered on this account. She asked for consultation with all the BDCs, DDCs and PRIs for identification of works in their respective areas.

Regarding provision of offices of DDC and BDCs, Commissioner Secretary directed the Deputy Commissioner for preparing DPR in this regard.

Taking serious notice of slow pace of progress on ongoing works, Commissioner Secretary asked for completion of works within stipulated time ensuring high quality standards. She asked the officers for uploading details of completed works on the departmental portal for information of the concerned.

While discussing initiative of reviving the rural heritage, she impressed upon the concerned officers to identify two heritage works in their respective areas so that the traditional and cultural identity could be projected which in turn will help in their preservation and protection.

Regarding the issue of stalled projects, she asked the concerned officers for immediate resolution of disputes with the intervention of PRIs. Commissioner Secretary emphasised on conduct of exposure visits, capacity building and training for PRIs for better comprehension of works, schemes and policies with regard to rural development.

While stressing upon the need for better coordination and information dissemination, Commissioner Secretary informed that all panchayat ghars shall be provided internet connectivity through Bharat

Net in coming days.

Reviewing Mahatma Gandhi NREGA, she directed BDOs to update the data related to completed works on MIS portal within a week's time. She exhorted upon the ACD and BDOs to take up works under Swachh Bharat Abhiyan besides identifying beneficiaries under SBM(G), IHHL with the help of PRIs. She also called for expediting works under Back to Village, IWMP, UMEED and BADP with active participation of all stakeholders. Earlier, a detailed resume of progress on ongoing schemes was presented through a PowerPoint presentation. Besides, discussions were also held on financial and physical achievements, availability of funds, non convergence works, convergence works, pending liability and related issues. Meanwhile, Commissioner Secretary also listened to the issues raised by DDC, BDCs and PRIs assuring immediate resolution of the same.

LG's Admn fully sensitised towards redressal of public grievances of remotest areas: Div Com

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

KISHTWAR: On the second day of two day tour to district Kishtwar, Divisional Commissioner Jammu, Dr Raghav Langer and Additional Director General of Police (ADGP), Mukesh Singh visited the snow bound Warwan Valley and took firsthand appraisal of the basic amenities available to the people of the area amid the harsh winter season. The visiting officers also listened and redressed the grievances of the local people.

Deputy Commissioner, Kishtwar Ashok Sharma, Senior Superintendent of Police, Shafkat Hussain Bhat, besides other senior officers also accompanied them during the visit.

The Divisional Commissioner reviewed the stock and supply position of ration, medicines, LPG and other daily essentials in the area, besides the basic amenities available for the Public.

Later, the Div Com, along with ADGP, interacted with the PRI members and the local and listened to their grievances and demands.

The locals demanded tunnel connectivity from Matti Gowran to Warwan, enhancement of ration quota per family, timely payment of MGNREGA wages, chopper facility to the valley throughout the year, strengthening of health infrastructure and patient care, up-gradation of Educational Infrastructure and expansion of road connectivity, besides posting of full fledged BDO.

After patient hearing, the Div Com assured that their genuine demands will be conceded in a time bound manner as the divisional level administration has reached at their doorstep to mitigate their sufferings.

The visiting officers issued on the spot directions to concerned officers for immediate redress of the issues of urgent need.

Interacting with the locals, the Div Com stressed on the officers stationed in the valley to put in extra efforts to improve services delivery as per needs of the people.

Besides he asked the PRIs to extend full support and cooperation to the administration to facilitate smooth execution of developmental works in this far flung area. The Div Com assured the public of Inshan that Lieutenant Governor's administration is fully committed and sensitised towards public grievance redressal of remotest areas of the UT.
