

Army organises medical camp

Army official providing medicines.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NOWSHIERA: Army organized a medical camp on Sunday at Govt. Sr. Sec. School in Village Laroka with the dual aim of providing medical assistance and free-of-cost medication to the locals residing in the border villages near the Line of Control in Nowshera Sector. The endeavor of the Indian Army was to address the health related issues along with providing remedial measures to ladies and senior citizens against chronic ailments & lifestyle diseases. The locals were provided with a wide variety of free medication to address a wide range of day-to-day health related concerns and provide a platform to the poor and needy to gain access to high quality medicines. The Medical camp was attended by 116 locals from the villages of Lam, Laroka, Pukharni, Mohra Kampla & Qila Darhal. This initiative of the Indian Army was highly appreciated by the local residents and it will further strengthen the bond between the Awaam and the Indian Army.
