ADC Jammu, Satish Sharma chairing a meeting.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Additional Deputy Commissioner Jammu, Satish Sharma on Monday reviewed the arrangements regarding the auspicious occasion of Mahashivratri Festival, here at DC Office.

Chairing the meeting, the ADC Jammu discussed the necessary arrangements required and issued on the spot directions to the officials of the concerned departments.

The arrangements for Security, Traffic regulation were discussed, while Jal Shakti, JKPDCL, Municipality, Chief Medical Officer, PWD, Floriculture, Fire Services, Tourism Department departments were asked to make available their services well in time. The ADC issued directions to ensure uninterrupted power supply/water supply, laying of Joint Naka by Police and Volunteers of the Temple management for the hassle free movement of the pilgrims at the temples.

It was decided in the meeting that mobile toilet vans, fire tender and an ambulance with Medical Staff shall be stationed at the temples which witness huge rush of devotees.

The Traffic Department was directed to ensure effective regulation, while the Police department was asked to ensure foolproof security arrangements around the temples.

Regarding the Shobha Yatra, the ADC asked the representatives of religious organizations to ensure adherence to Covid-19 protocol like maintaining of the distance, use of hand sanitizers and face masks. He also asked the officers of line departments to ensure all necessary arrangements on designated routes before the start of the Shoba Yatra.

SP North Kulbir Handa; Joint Director Information Namrita Dogra; ACG Rakesh Dubey besides senior officers from Traffic, Security, Jal Shakti, Tourism, Floriculture, Health along with representatives of religious organizations were also present at the meeting.

SCERT organises series of events to commemorate Int'l Mother Tongue Day

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: In a bid to promote and highlight the importance of mother tongue, the cultural wing of State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT) on Monday organized a series of events to commemorate International Mother Tongue Day.

The Day is being observed to promote preservation and protection of all languages being spoken by people of the world.

Various speakers highlighted the importance of mother tongue in framing the thinking and emotions of people.

Director SCERT, Professor Veena Pandita, while speaking on the occasion said that Mother tongue is a powerful tool in advancing the learning of students. She added that when the parents communicate with their children in their mother tongue while telling them stories and discussing day-to-day matters then they effortlessly follow and understand things resulting in educational success. "Without a mother tongue, a child is deprived of its personal and cultural identity," Prof Pandita maintained while saying that Personal identity emanates from children's understanding of themselves, their roots and their history.

Principal Higher Secondary School, Gund Hassi Bhat, Mir Shabir, who is a poet and writer as well, elaborated on the importance of Kashmir language. "Persevering and protecting a mother tongue is the most important way of keeping a culture alive," Mir asserted. Noted journalist and language activist, Javed Matji, discussed the importance of Urdu language in Jammu and Kashmir. "Urdu is a symbol of unity that has tied people in a single cord regardless of religion or sect," Matjee said.

Academic Officer, Sheikh Gulzar, gave a detailed presentation on three-language formula to promote multilingualism while as Dr Shabnam, Head of Department, Education in Languages, highlighted the importance of Hindi language in the country. Javed Kirmani, in charge Documentation and Library SCERT, coordinated the program. A similar function was organized at the divisional office of the SCERT at Jammu.
