SHRADHANJALI

The Remarkable journey of Smt Shardha Devi ji.

Social Activist is so impactfully purposeful that it can never be expressed in mere words.her life is 61 years has left an incredible mark through a multifaced approach dedicated to the social service.

Smt. Sharda Devi W/o Sh. Gopal Dass, resident of H.no.21, South ext. 1B, ward no. 57, Trikuta nagar, Jammu expired on 01.02.2024. She was born on 19.10.1962 at Village Nardani (Raipur). She was not only a housewife but also took active part in social welfare activities for resolution of local people's sufferings on account of unfinished works and pending work of water and power supply, repairs of lanes and construction of drains in her residential areas along with other local social workers/ welfare committee during the period of her good health. As and when any senior govt. official visited the area to take stock of the pending work, she always remained in the forefront, asserting and bringing local issues to the notice of the concerned officer alongwith other local social workers. She was a pious lady and remained always kind, cooperative and extended helping hand to the poor people.

She was married to Shri Gopal Dass originally resident of Village Raipur Satwari in the year 1982.

Her husband being very social worker in the society motivated her to great extent in performing her positive/ cooperative role in the society. Her husband is Ex..AGM(RBI).

She was blessed with two sons who were properly nourished and well qualified.

Elder son is working in Forest Department of J & K UT and younger son is working in Reserve Bank of India at present.

Smt.Shardha Devi ji stand as a paragon of Life well-lived ,humanitarian service and spiritual enlightenment. She legacy continue to inspire generations reinforcing the belief that one such pious soul can made huge difference in the world she lived a life as social Activist.

Heartfelt tribute

From

Gopal Dass(Husband)

Smt.Shardha Devi ji
