DODA: The Motor Vehicles Department (MVD) Doda, on the direction of Deputy Commissioner Harvinder Singh and under the supervision of ARTO Rajesh Gupta on Friday, organized a road safety awareness campaign in Trial Ground Bhaderwah. The event took place at the Bhaderwah trial ground, as part of the ongoing celebration of National Road Safety Month. The initiative aimed to educate the general public and new driving license (DL) seekers about road safety measures.

During the event, an oath on road safety was administered by the Motor Vehicles Department, with the participation of new DL seekers, the driving community, and MVD officials. The ceremony emphasized the importance of adhering to road safety guidelines and precautions. Large banners promoting road safety were prominently displayed, drawing a significant crowd of local residents and drivers from the community. He urged newly licensed drivers and the driving community to prioritize safety while driving, emphasizing the unique challenges of navigating mountainous roads. Additionally, ARTO Doda highlighted the ongoing celebration of National Road Safety Month and reiterated the department's commitment to promoting safe driving practices. In addition to the event, emphasis was placed on specific safety measures crucial for driving in hilly areas.
