Dr. Rubia Bukhari, earns International recognition for Cocoon Artistry

STATE TIMES NEWS
POONCH: Dr. Rubia Bukhari, lecturer in the Department of Sericulture at Poonch Campus, University of Jammu, has brought honor to the University of Jammu by showcasing her remarkable Cocoon Artistry at the recently concluded International Conference of the "Essential Oil Association of India" in Chennai. Dr. Bukhari's innovative Cocoon Artistry initiative has not only captivated the audience but has also been hailed as a significant contribution to the field. Her expertise in sericulture has propelled her work to the forefront, turning heads at the prestigious international event. With a passion for cocoon artistry, she is committed to reshaping the landscape of sericulture practices and contributing to the "White Revolution" in the industry.

The momentous presentation of Dr. Rubia Bukhari's Cocoon Artistry at the conference underscores her commitment to advancing sericulture practices and exploring new frontiers in the field. The intricacy and creativity displayed in her work have positioned her as a trailblazer in the "White Revolution." Dr. Bukhari expressed her gratitude for the platform provided by the Essential Oil Association of India, emphasizing the importance of collaborative efforts to revolutionize sericulture practices. The initiative by Dr. Rubia Bukhari is not just a local triumph but a tale of "White Revolution" echoing from Poonch to Kanyakumari. Her dedication to advancing the artistry of sericulture promises to inspire a new wave of innovation in the industry. In addition to her exemplary contributions to sericulture, Dr. Rubia Bukhari expresses her ardent desire to serve as an ambassador for Prime Minister Narendra Modi's "Atmanirbhar Bharat" and "Nari-Shakti" initiatives. Dr. Bukhari envisions aligning her passion for cocoon artistry with the national agenda of self-reliance, contributing to the empowerment of women in the industry. By embracing and embodying the spirit of these initiatives, she aspires to play a pivotal role in fostering innovation, resilience, and women's empowerment within the sericulture sector. Dr. Bukhari's dedication not only extends to artistic excellence but also to becoming a catalyst for positive change, echoing the transformative vision of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's initiatives on a national scale.

Expressing her gratitude, Dr. Bukhari thanked Director Poonch Campus Prof. Rakesh Vaid for his unwavering support and guidance, which played a pivotal role in her journey. She emphasized the importance of collaborative efforts in revolutionizing sericulture practices and acknowledged the platform provided by the Essential Oil Association of India. Dr. Rubia Bukhari expressed her gratitude to Mr. Touqeer Bagban, MD of JK Aroma and Essential Oil, for providing a global platform to showcase her groundbreaking Cocoon Artistry. The opportunity to present her work at an International level is a testament to the support and encouragement she has received from Bagban and his esteemed organization.
