Awareness being imparted among students.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
KATHUA: The Electoral Literacy Club today organized an awareness program at the Govt Degree College for Women Kathua to educate young and first-time voters about the importance of exercising their voting right to elect a Govt.

the organization of the registration camp for the enrollment of new voters in the campus complex. "The awareness is important among the youth to enroll themselves as voters and exercise their voting right to strengthen the democratic system in the country," he said.

Besides, District Level Master Trainer, Rahul Gupta delivered his lecture, and accordingly, the students were provided on hand training by the experts. Earlier, Coordinator Election Literacy Club, Dr Syed Naser Ali Shah welcomed the guests and informed the participants about the importance of this program that would help the new generation about their role as nation building. Pertinently, the NSS students actively participated in making the program a success.

On this occasion, Deputy Director Election Officer, Kathua, Nagesh Singh was the chief guest, who appreciated the organizer of the program and hoped that the program would help the young and first-time voters to understand the importance of their vote.

He also commended the role of GDCW Kathua authorities for their initiative to educate the young voters about their role in nation building and in the election process.

Meanwhile, he assured that he will coordinate with the College Officials regarding
