

Ruchi Chouhan honoured as best female change leader by ZH Foundation

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: At the prestigious 21st annual gathering of the Dr. Zakir Hussain Foundation, held on the momentous occasion of International Women's Day in Aligarh, Ruchi Chouhan was awarded the title of Best Female Change Leader for her outstanding contributions to saving human lives through her tireless efforts to promote road safety awareness. This recognition was bestowed upon her in acknowledgment of her dedicated service under the Fahad Mir Foundation.

Chouhan is the Director of Asian Rollball Federation. She was passionate cricketer in her school days and was in J&K State Cricket Team and had played inter-state Sub junior cricket matches.

Ruchi's dedication to environmental health and women's empowerment is evident in her role as Secretary of the Care Nature & Environment Society, a 24-year-old organization making strides in these critical areas. Beyond her activism, Ruchi has made significant entrepreneurial achievements, particularly in IT-enabled services.

Ruchi Chouhan, Founder Fahad Mir Foundation receiving best women social activist award instituted by ZHF from Shah Faisal Dy Secy.Min of Culture,Gazala Faisal DDG Min of Communication,Md Asif Habib Chairman Habson Group & others

Despite lacking formal qualifications in IT, she has pioneered computer education in Jammu & Kashmir, offering diploma courses sponsored by national councils and introducing Urdu software to the region.

Her entrepreneurial ventures extend to book supply, national-level book fairs, software development for government departments, and the implementation of government-sponsored schemes. The Dr. Zakir Hussain Foundation, renowned for its commitment to the socio-economic upliftment of marginalized communities, chose to honour Ruchi Chouhan for her remarkable endeavors in building a sustainable future.

The awards ceremony was graced by distinguished personalities including Dr. Sharf Hazel from the Ministry of Culture, Ajay Chaudhary, Special Commissioner of Police Delhi, Dr. Mohammad Asif Habib, Chairman of Hepsion Group of Companies, Salab Mathur, Inspector General of Aligarh Range, Rahul Gautam, Executive Chairman of Sheila Foam Limited, Ghazala Faisal, Deputy Director-General from the Ministry of Communication, and Ashok Shahani, Chief Patron of ZHF worldwide, among others.

Ruchi's unwavering dedication to saving lives has been evident through her extensive engagement in mega events, motor rallies, symposiums, and educational campaigns involving Bollywood personalities. Collaborating with the transport and traffic department of the Jammu and Kashmir government, she has organized numerous road shows and rallies aimed at educating young riders about traffic rules, thus striving to prevent road accidents and fatalities.

Furthermore, as the Founder Trustee of the Pushp Lata Chouhan Memorial Educational & Charitable Trust, Ruchi has been instrumental in providing skill education to the youth of Jammu and Kashmir, empowering them to become self-reliant individuals.

Her multifaceted contributions extend beyond road safety advocacy. As the Secretary of the Care Nature & Environment Society and a member of the Muslim Rashtra Manch, J&K Chapter, Ruchi's efforts in environmental health and women empowerment have also been recognized.

With a Bachelor's in Commerce, a Post Graduate Diploma in Global Understanding from the University of Jammu in collaboration with six international universities, and an O Level diploma from DOEACC, Ruchi Chouhan's academic prowess is commendable.

Her passion for cricket, demonstrated during her school days as a member of the J&K State Cricket Team, adds to her diverse skill set. Ruchi Chouhan's journey exemplifies a remarkable blend of social activism, entrepreneurial spirit, and technological innovation. Her relentless dedication to fostering positive change in Jammu & Kashmir and beyond is truly inspiring.
