SHRADHANJALI

Trilok Singh Batra, a renowned artist and former Principal of the Institute of Music and Fine Arts in Jammu and Kashmir, passed away on Saturday, January 27, 2024. He was a graduate of the Delhi College of Art and went on to serve as an Instructor of Applied Arts at the Institute of Music and Fine Arts (IMFA) in Jammu. He later held the position of Head of the Applied Arts Department and retired as Principal of IMFA Jammu. In addition, he served as Dean of the Fine Arts Faculty at the University of Jammu.

Throughout his career, T S Batra nurtured and mentored many young artists in various fields of Applied Arts, Graphics, Painting, Modern Arts, and traditional and illustration art patterns. He was also instrumental in promoting local art traditions among the people of Jammu and Kashmir. His contributions to the field of painting and commercial art in the region are particularly notable.

Colleagues, students, and young artists, as well as near and dear ones, paid heartfelt tributes to T S Batra in memory of his pioneering work in the field of fine arts.

T.S. Batra from Jammu and Kashmir has participated in various art exhibitions across India since 1968. He has showcased his works in over 50 solo and group exhibitions, including the Rashtriya Kala Mela, New Delhi, and the All India Art Exhibition at the Indian Academy of Fine Arts, Amritsar. His works as a painter can be characterized by their unique blend of realism and abstraction, often depicting themes of nature, dreams, and the human experience.

Use of vibrant colours and bold brushstrokes gave his paintings a dynamic and emotive quality.

In his art, Batra conveyed the volume and clarity of his skills, as well as his aesthetic devotional rendition. He orchestrated tonal values and searches for the unknown, creating a visual conversation that reflects his keen observations and emotions. His works are characterized by their lucid expressions and vividness of pigmentation, which are controlled by great skill and technical ability.

Batra's work of art showcases a variety of his works, including oil paintings, watercolors, drawings and graphics. Some of his notable works include "Man Beast & King," "The Couple," and "Maya." His art is a testament to his passion and dedication to the world of art, and his contributions to the field are widely recognized and appreciated.
