SHRADHANJALI

Shri P S Katoch, Ex-serviceman, son of Late Shri Basant Singh Katoch, resident of F-99, Sainik Colony, Jammu, who left for heavenly abode on January 26, 2024 was born in 1937 at village Chak Katoch, Hanga (Bhaderwah), District Doda.

He joined Indian Army and provided his services in the Artillery Regiment. During his career he fought bravely against China in 1962 and against Pakistan in 1965 as well as in 1971. He continued to provide his services in the Central Water Commission as a responsible public servant & citizen even after retiring from the Armed Forces and has set high standards for the forthcoming generation. As a hardworking soldier and never to give up attitude, he continued with the similar values for another 20 years in the civil organisation. Besides his professional career he was a responsible husband and father. He is survived by a son Shri D S Katoch (KAS officer 2001 batch) and a daughter Mrs Santosh Sambyal.

Shri P S Katoch despite coming from a humble background and a far off village in his district has set an example that everything can be achieved by working hard and honestly and was instrumental in motivating the youth for betterment of future. Shri P S Katoch stood as a paragon of life well lived, a harmonious blend of armed forces and civil valour and humanitarian services. His legacy continues to inspire generations reinforcing the belief that success can be achieved by dedication and hard work.

Shri P S Katoch
